Mr Flood said he knew Mr Ryan to be a very decent and respectable citizen. He had met the prosecution quite frankly and honourably. He would impose a fine of 5s, without endorsement, and Wallace would be fined 2s 6d.

Mary Kennedy, publican, Augustinian Place, was summoned for a breach of the Licensing Act on St. Patrick's Day, when Guard Mullins paid a visit to the premises and found a pint measure on the bar counter with fresh traces of stout. The publican stated that she had served a bona fide traveller from Clonlara, as she thought she was entitled to do.

Mr Flood said he believed the woman acted in good faith, and he would impose the smallest penalty now allowed by the statute, 5s and costs.

Mr P. E. O'Donnell, solicitor, appeared for the publican.

Thomas F. Ryan, Thomas street, was also summoned for contravening the same statute on the 5th April, when the evidence showed that Guard Koneally found a man on the premises.

Mr P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor, for the defendant said that the man found on the premises was in the habit of taking a daily meal at the place.

A fine of 10s was imposed, not to be endorsed, and 2s 6d on the man found on the premises.

DEATH OF MRS MARGARET O'CONNOR.

We regret to announce the death, which occurred at her residence, Island Road, this afternoon, after a short illness, of Mrs Margaret O'Connor, second daughter of Mr James O'Halloran, foreman of the typographical department of the "Chronicle." Coming, as it has, so soon after the recent demise of her mother, the deepest sympathy of a wide circle of friends will be accorded to her husband and relatives in their double bereavement.
