

pansion of their trade, and supplemented this to the effect that labour must share in that expansion. It is well to have such expression of opinion at a time when we are too prone to take a pessimistic view of the national welfare and outlook. The spirit of optimism is well worth cultivating, and Limerick has a lesson to learn in this respect from the neighbouring City of Cork, which is standing up manfully in the tackling of her problems.

RESCUE FROM DROWNING AT KILKEE.

Bravery Recognised.

An official announcement by the Royal Humane Society says:—Frederick Robinson, 35, of Derryguile, Marlboro' road, Glenageary, Co. Dublin, and Edward Connaughton, 33, Wickham street, Limerick, have each been awarded the Society's Bronze Medal for having saved from drowning at Kilkee, Co. Clare, on 21st August, Joan McNamara, 15, of 5 Grattan Villas, Limerick. The girl was bathing in the sea, which was very rough, and being caught by the current she was quickly swept out some 70 yards. Robinson, who has only one leg, swam out to her, but was unable to bring her in, and could only help to keep her afloat. Connaughton, to whom a lifebuoy was thrown, swam out to them and got both to hold on to the buoy, while he took a rope and after a hard struggle managed to reach land, and they were then pulled in.

suffered from the effects of the accident, and had been put to a great deal of expense—medical expense and otherwise. He awarded £250 damages and forty guineas expenses.

DEATH OF MISS E. MacNEICE.

The death, which we announce with sincere regret, took place at Weston House, O'Connell Avenue, early yesterday morning of Miss Eileen MacNeice, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Arthur MacNeice, after three weeks illness. She was in her twenty-second year, and the cause of death was meningitis. Miss MacNeice was a bright and attractive young lady, with a winning manner, which constituted her a great favourite with a wide circle of friends. Her demise in the bloom of life has come as a great shock to her parents and family, with whom the deepest sympathy is expressed in their bereavement.

The remains, accompanied by a large body of mourners, were removed last evening to St. Michael's Church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock this morning by the Rev Father Moriarty, C.C., after which the funeral left for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. It was the largest seen in the city for years, and was representative of all classes and creeds, thus demonstrating the widespread sympathy which is felt in Limerick and far outside it for the family in their poignant sorrow. It would be impossible to give a detailed list of the general public.

The chief mourners were—Mr and Mrs Arthur MacNeice, parents; Carrie, Lilly, Maisie, Una, Nell, Eva, Arthur, Dan, Phons, Hugh, Desmond, Niall, sisters and brothers; Arthur O'Connor, grandfather; Mr and Mrs J. S. MacNeice and family, Mr Daniel MacNeice and family, Mrs McMahon and family, Mr and Mrs T. J. Wallace and family, Mrs Riordan, Mr and Mrs C. O'Connor, Arthur O'Connor, junior, Miss Eva O'Connor, Mr and Mrs J. Cahill, Mr and Mrs J. Kennedy, Mr and Mrs B. O'Leary, Mr and Mrs James MacNeice, Mr T. O'Halloran, Rev P. Barrett, P.P., Clonlara, relatives.

The clergy present were—Rev Fr. Thornhill, Adm.; Rev Fr. Moriarty, C.C.; Rev Fr. Cooper, C.C., D.D.; Rev Fr. Carroll, C.C.; Rev Fr. Harty, C.C.; Rev Fr. Fitzpatrick, C.C.; Rev Fr. Murray, C.S.S.R.; Rev Fr. O'Shea, C.S.S.R.; Rev Fr. Dermot, O.M.F.; Rev Fr. Baptist, O.M.F.; Rev Fr. O'Reilly, S.J.; Rev Fr O'Connell, S.J.

Rev Father Thornhill officiated at the graveside.
