

the ratepayers paying the second moiety of the rate.

The Chairman—My opinion is that it will not.

Mr Madden proposed a resolution calling on the Minister for Local Government to extend the overdraft from £35,000 to £65,000 for a period of three months, and while the Council clearly realises their obligations under the Public Boards order, they were of opinion that the circumstances in which they found themselves were due to the depressed conditions of agriculture.

Mr Cahill seconded the resolution, which adopted unanimously, as was a resolution, proposed by Mr Lloyd, calling on the ratepayers to pay the second rate moiety.

DEATH OF MRS. J. J. FOLEY.

Numerous friends in city and county will regret to learn of the death, which took place to-day at Belfield, Ennis-road, of Mrs J. J. Foley, wife of a highly esteemed citizen. She belonged to an old Limerick family, being sister of the late Mr J. F. Barry, Coroner, and at one time Mayor of the city. Her death removes a true and staunch friend, and deep sympathy is expressed with her family and relatives in their sorrow. Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.

COUNTY RATE ESTIMATE.

The Department of Local Government, in a communication read at the County Council Finance Committee, intimated that under the Public Bodies Order an extension for a month had been granted to the County Board of Health, to preparing the forthcoming estimate.

Mr Hewson—That is taking the responsibility from the Ministry, and I object to that procedure.

The Secretary—In that respect I now apply for an extension of the time to prepare the county estimate.

Mr Hewson—I desire to enter a protest.

The Secretary—I put my application before the meeting, and if it is not granted I will apply to the Department.

Mr Hewson—We should not ask the Ministry to postpone the estimate.

The Secretary—I base my application on the fact that the Health Board estimate has been postponed.

As the Committee declined to entertain the application of the Secretary, he intimated that to protect himself he would apply to the Department
