The note circulation is represented at £1,270,239, deposits at £36,284,347, cash on hand £3,410,661, and money at call £2,844,669. Investments show an increase of over £800,000, and advances total £16,377,127. The total assets stand at £40,711,284. The Bank's position is thus very satisfactory, and the directors and shareholders are to be congratulated on the result of the half year's working, despite agricultural and trade depression.

DEATH OF MR P. KELLY, B.L.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr Patrick Kelly, B.L., which occurred yesterday at St. John's Hospital. He was a brilliant member of the Munster Bar, and retired from practice some years ago.

He was a native of Ardagh, Co Limerick, was called to the Bar in the early nineties, and by his talents and forensic abilities soon built a lucrative practice. He was unmarried.

XMAS TREE AT ADARE.

Entertainment by Lord and Lady Dunraven.

The Earl and Countess of Dunraven gave a Christmas entertainment to the wives and children of their employees at the Village Hall, Adare. The attendance numbered 300, and a heavily-laden Xmas tree proved a great source of pleasure to the juveniles. A sumptuous tea was provided, and a vote of thanks was passed with acclamation to the noble hosts and Lady Olien Wyndham Quin, on the motion of Rev Mr Elliott, Methodist Minister, seconded by Rev Father Connolly, P.P., Adare.

Lord Dunraven, in reply, expressed the hope that this function would be an annual event. He expressed his pleasure at the installation of electric lighting in a number of the houses in the village, the neat ap-
