letter recently received vernment Department, to editorially, calling for the vhole-time Medical Superf Health for the City will e meeting of the Corporais likely to occasion some or many years the late Dr ed the duties in a part-time 5 a year, and since his n the work has been done y by Dr. Moran, tubermedical inspection officer. the Department would al burden of £800 a year, on the rates, which are at 1 the pound. It may be in the past twelve months urged on the Council the cing the rates and even o a loan because of their t is believed that the will not be entertained by iew being entertained that Medical Superintendent h can, as hitherto, ged by a local practitioner sis.

GE CONSTRUCTION.

Grievance.

representing residents in t waited on the Corporation gested that the contractors over the Abbey River be that the gradient of the can be appreciably reduced. it was pointed out, the steep, and would have the houses four feet below That would be a serious occupiers, and should be extent.

as of opinion that nothing ow, as the plans had been a work of constructing the progress. Representation be made to ask the conleadequate passages to the ffected.

artists in the musical world, and it was elevating to notice their humbleness—music being a rather touchy profession.

His remarks were attentively listened to,

and very much appreciated.

Past President Gaffney proposed a very sincere vote of thanks to Mr Downer, saying that all were much indebted to him, and hoped that he would help in reviving the old musical spirit in Limerick

This was seconded unanimously, and Vice-President Tubridy (in the unavoidable absence of President Barnett) tendered the vote of thanks to the lecturer, and spoke of the great pleasure it gave him to listen to the address. Mr Downer suitably replied.

DEATH OF A RELIGIEUSE.

The death took place at St. Mary's Convent on Tuesday of Sister Mary Cecilia Ryan after an illness of some duration. The deceased religiouse, who was aged sixty years, was professed nearly forty years ago. She was fourth daughter of the late Mr J. T. Ryan, building contractor of this city, and sister of Mr George Ryan, C.E.

Yesterday morning in the community chapel Requiem High Mass, at which the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Keane, presided, was sungfor the repose of the soul of the deceased. The celebrant was Rev. Fr O'Regan, C.C., St. Mary's; deacon, Rev. Fr. O'Connor, C.C., do; sub-deacon, Rev. Fr. Moriarty,

C.C., St. Michael's, and Master of Ceremonies, Rev. Fr. Brassill, C.C., St. John's.

Amongst the clergy in the choir were—Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, P.P., V.G., Rathkeale; Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Very Rev. Canon Curtin, P.P., Croom; Very Rev. Canon Dwane, P.P., Patrickswell; Rev. Father Hannon, P.P., St. Mary's; Rev. Father Wallace, P.P., Cratloe; Rev. Father Thornhill, Adm., St. Michael's.

The interment took place in the convent cometery, and the chief mourners included Mr G. R. Ryan, C.E, brother, and his sons and daughters.

BRITISH FLYING BOAT

Mr J. G O allowances had the predecessors

The Mayor sa appealed to the surcharges, and The case of the settled, as the p circumstances u to retire from the Alderman R scheme in opera viated.

Mr P. Bourke suggested here s refused to becom

Ald Reidy—1
The Mayor—

The Auditor ment of these per the extravagant payers' money by resulted in a dearate as high £. He commodicial in the Cias salary of £1 not performed cable number of

In reply to M said the official and it was dec graph according
There was Auditor, descr
Public Baths

Public Baths, a whose duties ar another, descripark, deriving nominal duties duties could b "pensioners."

Alderman R of the Public meritorious pu appointment h people from dr did not know t in at the baths

The Mayorment as sugges Mr P. A. O

for a caretaker