IMPERIAL BAKERY.

New Tea Rooms.

Through the enterprise of the Imperial Bakery, Sarsfield street, new rooms are now open in that establishment, which is situate nearly opposite the Irish Omnibus terminus. It is being conducted on thoroughly up-to-date lines, and at prices that will be found in every way moderate, combined with an excellent service. Situated in a busy centre, the new tea rooms will be a great convenience to visitors to the city, while a large share of the patronage of citizens themselves is also assured. The tea rooms are very brightly and artistically arranged, and an inspection is heartily invited. It may be added that accommodation for whist and bridge parties up to one hundred can also be provided, and particulars may be obtained from Mrs Kiely. The proprietors of the Imperial Bakery are to be congratulated on their enterprise, which, we feel assured, will be as successful as are the other directions of the firm's activities.

DEATH OF MISS E. FITZGERALD.

Numerous friends in city and county will regret to learn of the death, after a short illness, of Miss Eileen Fitzgerald, daughter of the late Mr P Fitzgerald, Rosbrien, a well-known and popular County Limerick farmer, and Mrs Fitzgerald of Rosbrien Villa, where the sad event occurred yesterday. The deceased lady was held in affectionate regard by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and who deeply sympathise with the family in their bereavement. She was niece of Canon Wm. Fitzgerald, P.P., Shanagolden, and Rev. J. K. Fitzgerald, P.P., Kilcoleman, and sister of Dr Fitzgerald of Eden Bridge, Kent, and Dr Ml Fitzgerald, of Jersey City Hospital. Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

The usual Corporation Committees were not held last evening, it being Ash Wednesday. The city cinemas were also closed. Religious services were held in the various city churches.

BURNING ACCIDENT.

Bridie Jackson, aged fourteen, residing at Rosbrien Cottages, was in the kitchen yesterday when her clothes became ignited, and she received injuries to the body. She was conveyed by the Corporation Fire Brigade ambulance to the County Infirmary, where it was learned to-day that the patient is progressing favourably.

NEWCASTLE WEST SHOW.

At a special meeting of the Newcastle West Show Society on the 16th inst., Captain Curling presiding, it was announced that the situation in connection with a site for the 1931 Show had been simplified by the kind offer of the President to rent a site on the desmesne grounds.

The date of the Show was definitely fixed for Thursday, 17th September.

A vote of sympathy was passed to the family and friends of the late Mr Edward H. Sheehy, Bridge House, Ballygarry, who was an active member of the Show.

MAN AND HORSES BURNED TO DEATH.

A man and three horses were burned to death in a fire which destroyed Buckley's Stables, at Denaby, near Doncaster, on Tuesday night. The high wind fanned the flames, and completely gutted the premises within a few minutes. The man, who was elderly, was W. Eady, who had been in the habit of sleeping in the stable, and it is thought that he was kicked by a horse and stunned in attempting to escape. Three lorries were also destroyed.

THE LATE COLONEL BRINSLEY FITZGERALD.

At the meeting of the Committee of the Black Abbey Co-operative Agricultural and Dairy Society, Adare, the following resolution, proposed by Mr J. Butler, seconded by Mr O'Neill, was passed unanimously:—"That we tender to Mr Peter D. Fitzgerald, Mondellihy, our worthy Chairman, our sincere sympathy in his bereavement on the death of his brother, Colonel Brinsley Fitzgerald."

ALLEGED ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A man named James Walshe, aged 38 years, living in Windmill-street, was admitted to Barrington's Hospital to-day suffering from a wound in the throat, alleged to be self-inflicted. He was detained for treatment, but his condition is stated not to be serious.

'BUS ACCIDENT.

While alighting from a 'bus in O'Connell Avenue to-day, Mary Childs, an old woman, missed her footing and fractured her right leg. She was removed in the Corporation Fire Brigade ambulance to Barrington's Hospital, where she was detained for treatment.
