

method, the lecturer
of the intensive drainage the planting of trees on the drains. There is at bogs in this country restation, and the effireferred to will, there ed with advantage. It
n from Mr A. G. Forbes, ree State Forestry Act
ctorily, and that the
the Department has not hich went to arbitration.
s to the keen interest of restation.

COMMENT.

in Fisheries.

in the Shannon since the season does not seem to acts. So far the catches particularly in the upper as if the prophecy of servators will be fulfilled of Fisheries takes steps effect of the Shannon scheme on the fisheries have asked the Minister to to the present state of the the position may be s taken to preserve so l industry. The reply is iety, not only by the Con-large number of men who mon fisheries for a liveli-

WEEK IN 1931.

s year will run from the March, and every shop in hoped, display Irish goods vs in accordance with the through a fence, and plunged on to the railway line. Some of the passengers jumped out before the bus fell, but seven of them, together with the driver and conductor, were hurled to what seemed certain death.

The bus was reduced to matchwood, and flames began to appear among the wreckage.

Two of the passengers were pinned underneath the wreckage, and owe their lives to a party of miners who, at great risk to themselves, put out the flames and extricated the injured, who were taken to hospital.

DEATH OF MR. JACK KEOGH, Gerald Griffin Street.

The death of Mr Jack Keogh, 22 Upper Gerald Griffin-street, which took place on Sunday morning, is deeply regretted by numerous friends, to whom he had endeared himself by his very unassuming and genial disposition. He passed away in the prime of life and after a short illness, fortified by the rites of the Catholic Church, of which he was a devout member. The funeral, which took place on Monday to Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery, was an eloquent tribute to the respect in which the deceased was held. The following floral tributes were sent:—"In fond and loving memory, from father, mother, and brother"; "As a last fond token, from Jack Neville"; "With deepest sympathy, from Members of The City Club"; Mass Cards from Miss A.
Ryan and Mrs Hayes and family. The Rev.
Fr. Thornhill, Adm., officiated at the grave side.

MUNSTER SCHOOLS CUP.

At the Markets Field on next Thursday Presentation College, Cork, and Christian Schools, Limerick, will meet in the opening round of the Munster Schools Cup. As both sides will be at full strength a capital match should be witnessed, that is if the pitch is in anything like fair condition.

FEARED LOSS OF LIFE.

Mystery of Sunken Vessel at Arklow.

A mysterious vessel of 300 tons lying

Another mem
their example. F
but it collapsed
thrown to the floo
he grabbed one c brandishing it rou order. He appe
not until a large
that order was res
To the great c
scheme was defer 13 votes to 10. T
cession and, head
through the town,
supporters.

LORD HARI

Hunting

The Earl of H
Princess Mary, is
wood House, Leec
to his head, which when his horse fel
strike his head ag hunting with the
which he is M Yorkshire.

WOMAN TO

The Hon Mrs
to fly the Atlan
"Sunday News,"
to demonstrate aeroplanes, and to South Americ
intensive sales c
firms are pursuin
use a four-seater
her representativ
industry.

LIMERICK

Interest

The Executive
intend constituti
body to foster terests. There nouncement of a