Ireland and South Africa.

The second round tie between Ireland and South Africa will be played at the Fitzwilliam Club ground, Wilton Place, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, 14th, 15th, and 16th of May. Both countries came through the first round without losing a match, Ireland defeating Switzerland, and South Africa defeating Germany.

BRITISH WARSHIPS.

To Visit Bantry Bay.

A number of warships, composed of a battleship, and a flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers are to visit Irish waters this week, and make a stay of four days in Bantry Bay.

KILLED WHILE FELLING A TREE.

A sad fatal accident occurred in West Limerick last Saturday evening when John Hayes, an employee of Laurence Curtin, a farmer, of Reens, near Rathkeale, was killed while engaged felling a tree. Deceased was a fine young man, and leaves a widow and three young children.
