

...ving the adoption of the red that the shareholders resident in city and county ing protesting against the ctors.

ended the motion, which

MISSAL NOTICES

Withdrawn.

Mayor was informed by Morton, Chief Engineer Railways, that being meeting of the directors this verless to direct a with-sion of the notices of disn 63 employes at the tive Works. These men l work last evening. There elopment at the Directors' l in Dublin next Thursday

IND MEAT.

by Corporation.

District Court yesterday, Justice Flood,

Limited, were prosecuted ion for exposing for sale unfit for human conn, solr, appeared for the Mr E Treacy, solr, for the Hartnett, Veterinary Inon 23rd June he visited on Stores of Messrs O'Mara and asked the man in re any bacon products for umber of cases containing ad come from Claremorris, t to his notice, and in a hree back-bones that were food, as decomposition had fals were seized and des-n cross-examination, said fals were not on the top could not be observed by for the attendance of another witness.

Mr J. J. Power, State Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr J. S. Gaffney, solicitor, defended.

FUNERAL OF MRS SMYTH.

The funeral of the late Mrs Smyth, formerly of Reyntulla, Adare, took place on Monday, 6th inst.

Following a brief illness, Mrs Smyth, who had been in failing health for some months, passed away on Friday, 3rd inst, at 4 Clogrennan Terrace, Limerick, where she had been residing for some time.

After a short service in the house, conducted by Pastor F. W. Gracey, the cortege left for the family burial ground at Adare, where the interment took place.

The service at the graveside opened with the hymn "Low in the Grave He Laid, Jesus, My Saviour," and as the remains were being covered, those present joined in singing "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Amongst the chief mourners present were—James Smyth (son); Mrs Davis, Mrs Dean, Mrs C. H. Davis, Miss Bessie Smyth, Mrs Walsh (daughters); Mrs Irwin, Miss Smith (sisters); Burton Smith (brother); Mrs J. Smyth (daughter-in-law); Messrs H.
T. Jennings, C. Davis, P. L. Dean, G. Walsh, C. H. Davis (sons-in-law); Mrs Burton Smith, Mrs W. B. Smyth (sisters-in-law); Messrs J. Smyth, J. Waugh, J. H. Irwin (brothers-in-law); D. Smith, W. Smith, D.
Smith (Curragh Bridge), D. Irwin (nephews); Mrs Miller, Mrs Doherty, Misses M. Smith, K. Smith, and M. Smith (nieces).

Wreaths were sent by the following:—
"Bessie"; "Jim and Nora"; "Lily and Charlie"; "Maggie, Percy, and Cecil"; "Ida, George, Edith, and Hilda"; "Kathleen and Harry"; "May, Chris, Annie, and Sheila"; "Maggie, Jack, and Daisy"; "Curragh Bridge"; "Sue"; "May, Jack, Dick, and Jack"; "Mother, Dick, Jim, and Willie."

THE PORT SCHEMES.

When in Dublin this week on a deputation to the Ministry and Great Southern Railways Directors in regard to the loco-tion, in conjunct mittee, are offer the most attract advertising the next September attraction, and to all classes of rivalry to secure parade of these of the grand sta by the way a ne five hundred pec enclosure. Th initiative of a fe liberty to mentio

ON THE RIV.

I had almost f thing most ann and that is the in boats disturb the crews are g during the prog this obstruction
Some of the gui should have kno to set a sportsm behave in the in they did. Whil the presence of on regatta day—everybody enjo still there must ber having all pense and incon in the competi suggestion. It motor or row bo shore, that is to inside the flags course from the Surely the river have a good vie fering with it.
who intend seei
not to encroac point.

WORK ON T

It is a pleasu agreeable subjec that the Limeric are in splendid very much if the