

in this applies cases. This was entirely and can only
Health Boards
vers vested
Public Health
tion of a milk supply is possible to furnished to demonstrates Bill, in view ing sold under
ons. Almost supplier, and the congested
With such a rising to find
e Corporation,
eterinary staff,
revent the sale
ere absolutely e health of the

TENT.

Harbour Board
Sullivan, stated
ation he had the guarantee improvements
nance Minister
th. Although the Engineer's not yet been loan, which, it
g, as the works a quarter from closing of two of the factories, and the cause of the discrepancy in the price paid the farmer for his pigs and the consumer for his bacon.

It was decided to repeat the invitation to the merchants and others concerned to a conference to discuss the subject.

:: LIMERICK ::

Great Horse & Dog Show

TO-MORROW AND THURSDAY.

LOCAL APPOINTMENT.

The Minister for Industry and Commerce has appointed Mr M. P. Riordan, 62 O'Connell-street, the well-known travel agent, to be a member of the local Advisory Committee for Juvenile Employment.

DEATH OF MR. P. PUNCH.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at his residence, New street, on Sunday morning, of Mr Patrick Punch, after a somewhat brief illness. The deceased, who had reached his seventy-fourth year, was a well-known licensed vintner and held in the utmost esteem and respect.
He was uncle of Mr P. Quinlan, B.C., and Mr J. Quinlan, manager of the Anglo-Irish American Oil Company, to whom and other relatives sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

DUBLIN FIRE.

Two sections of the Dublin Fire Brigade attended a blaze in a storage factory occupied by W. G. Edmunds, cork merchants, Bridge street, Dublin, on Saturday night.
Many residents of nearby houses awakened by the fire, ran into the street, and clad in night attire, watched the flames. Several motor cars in adjoining premises were saved.
The origin of the fire was undetermined. It is understood that some of the stock, including glass bottle ware, etc., has been saved.

ing, though Ireland has to grass that is so vital for raising soil that is so necessary to the bone and substance.

"There is plenty of right breed hunters in Ireland," Mr but he adds: "We know the horse-love is deeply rooted, in man without his horse is like man without a bridle, or a sea ship. But it is no use relying reputation; new ideas and a away of worn-out measures ployed if Ireland is to continue the chief horse markets in the

THE DEAD LEAD

The anniversary of the death
Griffith, Michael Collins, O'Higgins was commemorated field Barracks on Sunday with ceremony. In the morning attended Mass, and subsequently in the quadrangle, where the hoisted at half mast. Officers stood at the salute while the was sounded. The troops missed, and the ceremony watched by several civilians

THE ENGLISH BUILDING

Rank and file in all English building trade have against the proposed national embodying the principle of a with a bonus system, in place piece-work arrangements. subject to revision in three required some slight tempo-the part of the workers which is being held up on high costs of building. It the union officials approve especially since the reduction general among all classes industry. The men, however their leaders' advice, despite large numbers of the trade