

K CHRONICLE.

SHED 1766)

TEMBER 1, 1931.

BLE DECISION.

contemplation by the oldiers' Land Trust for ritish ex-Servicemen's Green has been aban-1 taken by the Trust etted, in view of the uses in the city, but, orrespondence that has t, the Trust cannot be erick County Council, the Fair Green, have that is open to question nnection with the bar-of the site required by outset the latter were 50 per acre for the site
 ich is, it must be con-price. As a new road to give access to the
 , the Council suggested d bear a proportion of this they consented,
 they were prepared 3 6s 8d. As two uired the full amount meet was £583 6s 8d, re not evidently satis-
 e total value at £1,076, for the construction of ndary wall. In the cir-was left but to abandon he Trust in the final etter greatly regretted.

Industry and Commerce last week, and placed the position of the guarantee loan of £100,000 before them, and received an assurance that the Minister had done everything possible to get the loan sanctioned. He had learned that the Department of Finance had received all the particulars of the loan, to which sanction of the issue would be given when an official returned from holidays. The Engineer was almost sanguine that this would occur within the next eight or ten days, but meantime the Secretary, Mr D. McNeice, was directed to write the Department of Finance urging that the loan be issued without further delay so as to enable the Harbour Board to advertise the contracts.

DEATH OF REV. J. CONWAY, P.P., GLENROE.

The death took place at St. John's Hospital on Sunday evening of the Rev. John Conway, P.P., Glenroe, after an illness of about three months.

He was a native of Boherlode, Donoughmore, was educated at St. Munchin's College, Limerick, and ordained in Maynooth in 1896. He was 57 years of age. He spent two years in the Dunboyne establishment. He was a curate in Glin and also in Bruff, and was appointed parish priest of Glenroe five years ago on the death of Rev. Father Ambrose. A brilliant scholar, the late Father Conway was beloved of his flock, and his death will be sincerely regretted throughout the County of Limerick.

ELABORATE CARNIVAL PROGRAMME

The industrial exhibition which is to be the pivot of the Limerick Civic Carnival has for its object the focussing of attention on Irish manufactured goods. It is only when one sees a display of this character that the potentialities of the country's industrial products are fully realised and definitely appreciated. A feature of the Carnival will be the decoration of the business premises of the city in competition for substantial prizes. In this connection the So commented M an address to the yesterday. He asse that road transport advantage over the to these vehicles h condition of many menace to the publi other road users.

Senator O'Farrel control of transport, over capitalised, and uneconomic basis. saved if all transpor State enterprise. lines in County C alarm.

The question to Sherlock, was whet essary for the trade were, it was the dut make it possible for efficiently.

INSTITUTE O

President o

Mr William Char lin, in his president ference of the Inst Felixtowe, yesterday had proved true to the financial crisis. of gold was only one confronting most e believed, take a l manent solution of t the world was facec

A resolution that should be taken t on the question of Union of Journalist ference adjourned t

A RES'

Lady's Plucky

An exciting inc Kilmallock on Fric haruess on a pony attached, broke, a