

lers have the helpers, and bers of the others, are in connection s catered for in back of the

RS. is as follows—
) BOX STALL—
and Mrs Frank

L—Mrs T. H.

LL—The Lady
Miss Fitzgerald

Woodhouse, Mrs
atley.
Abbott and Mrs

L—Mrs Clifford
rs Newenham. uson and Miss

Brigade (Books, by C.L.B. and

EMONY.

at the opening formed by the motored from y the Bishop, Very Rev the rchdeacon, Rev
E. Goodbody,
and Mr J. E. supplied by the irl Guides.

the honour and Countess of azaar open.

1, who was very ave very great o-day on this and where you efforts in doing n sure it gives affords much

who come here ids. I am very and hope it will gives me great in Limerick during Christmas Shopping Carnival.

FORBAIRTE-

An advertisement relating to the Carnival appears in this evening's issue. It will be seen that cheap railway and bus fares from all centres have been arranged. There is no doubt a large number of visitors will avail themselves of the special facilities for coming to the city during the Xmas season and thus give a decided fillip to its trade and business.

DEATH OF A LIMERICK SS. CO. OFFICIAL.

We regret extremely to announce the death of Mr Patrick J. Mulcahy, of the Limerick Steamship Company, Limited, which took place rather unexpectedly at his residence, Roxboro' Road, last Tuesday evening. Mr Mulcahy was canvasser for the Company in this district, and was an old and highly-valued official, while his ever-kindly and courteous manner won for him the high esteem of the public in Limerick, and throughout the south and west of Ireland, with which he was for something like thirty years intimately associated in commercial life. The deep sympathy of all who had the pleasure of Mr Mulcahy's acquaintance is extended to his bereaved widow and family. The funeral, which took place this afternoon from St. Michael's Catholic Church to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, was large and representative of the business interests of the city.

A vote of condolence with the relatives of the deceased was passed at a meeting of the Corporation committee last night.

Amongst those who sent wreaths was Mr S. J. K. Roycroft, Managing Director; the Limerick Steamship Company, and the members of the staff of the firm. The latter were present at the funeral.

THE LATE MRS J. G. O'BRIEN.

The Corporation Committees were adjourning last night as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Mrs O'Brien, here, and a course of instru-coach would be advisable. possess a fine side, have a s and, in fact, can do anything NEXT SATURDAY.

We have an unusually im-
"at home" for next Saturd owen and Dolphin are du friendly rivalry. The Cor course, holders of the Mu Garryowen were the finalist season in a game that is s our memories:

Bohemians will be out of to University College, Galw I hear is true, they are recei in the person of a well kn threequarter, who should a hance the powers of penetra

THE MUNSTER JUNIO

The second round of this advanced a further stage o with games at Limerick and mians and Abbey meet at th while Young Munster meet at the Clare ground.

GENERAL.

Speaking of the juniors, next week-end games, and t the final, will have, I hear dent, a hard nut to crack v Nenagh (the holders). M saw the North Tipperary si Sunday against Shannon, wh comfortably, though it sh Limerick side were not a sented. Capable subs. ha Igoe, who has left to joi Force, and McKenna, U.C.C., and their thre almost a perfect machine, running wings in Flannery while J. O'Meara figure position. Hegarty is still men, and is in rare form j

THE IRISH XV.

The Irish team to Africans is not expected before next Saturday mor gossip in well-informed c practice selections both l