FUNERAL OF MISS N. HOGAN.

The remains of the late Miss Nell Hogan, for many years supervisor of the Telephone Exchange, Upper Cecil Street, were interred in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery last Monday morning after Requiem High Mass in St. Michael's Church. There was a representative attendance in the cortege, comprising Mr J. Twomey, Postmaster ; Mr T. A. Daly, Superintendent, and several members of the Postal, Telegraph, and Telephone services, as well as other citizens.

The chief mourner was Mr Harry Hogan, brother, a message being received from London that the sister and brother-in-law of the deceased were unable to make the journey.

The clergy present were :—Rev. Father Thornhill, Adm., St. Michael's ; Rev. Father Harty, C.C., do. ; Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, C.C. ; Rev. Father Carroll C.C. ; Rev. Dr.
Cowper, C.C., and Rev. Father Moriarty, C.C.

Father Thornhill officiated at the grave.

ILLICIT STILL.

Following a police raid in search of illicit stills in the mountainous district near Donemana, County Donegal, three men, Patrick O'Neill, Patrick Devine, and Owen Gormley, appeared before a special court at Strabane on Saturday night.
O'Neill was charged with permitting the
