

Mayor (Alderman P. J. Donnellan) and there were also present— R. Shaw, P. Moore, B.C.; G. R. E.; J. P. Goodbody, Alderman P. J. McCormack, Co.C.; S. J. K. P. N. Treacy, P. Bourke, B.C.; T. J. Wallace, E. Holliday, D. T. J. Loughrey, and Alderman J. ey, with D. McNeice, Secretary; Sullivan, Engineer, and Captain C. n, Harbour Master.

Board had four tenders already submitted for the work before them, and in one received by registered post morning from the Netherlands Works Company who were invited for the contract.

Figure in this case was not disclosed, as decided to submit the tender to meet to examine and report on it meeting which will be on Monday when it is understood the contract will be awarded.

WINTRY WEATHER.

Mild atmospherical conditions round the coast have given way to very wintry conditions in Ireland and the Channel. In Limerick last night the coldest night yet, and it froze so that there was a fairly thick layer of snow on the pools this morning. Snow has fallen heavily throughout the country in the last few days, though comparatively little in Limerick, and the Galtees and Clares covered with the fleecy mantle. It is a good time for winter sports, and in the parts of England skiing and tobogganing are carried on with great vigour. Many of those taking part have hitherto been to their Xmas in Switzerland, but the low value of the £ has induced them to return home.

At present the outlook points to a continuance of frosty conditions, with consequent discomfort to the poor in the lack of clothing and fuel supply.

A man named Edward Hegarty, of Ballina, Co. Mayo, who left his home last week to visit friends, has not been replied that they welcomed it as being the means of considerably augmenting the home trade.

DEATH OF MISS J. MCCARTHY.

We regret to record the death, which took place yesterday morning at 5 Harbour View, of Miss Julia McCarthy, at an advanced age. She was daughter of Mr. Peter McCarthy, founder of the well-known furniture firm of Messrs. P. McCarthy & Sons, O'Connell street, and aunt of Mr Joe McCarthy. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends is extended to her relatives in their bereavement. The funeral, which took place to-day, was private.

CITY MOTOR ACCIDENT.

Girl Seriously Injured.

Mona Cullens, aged 20 years, of St. Lelia street, was knocked down by a motor car in Broad street last night. She was crossing the thoroughfare when the accident occurred, and was taken in the Fire Station ambulance to Barrington's Hospital. An examination showed that she sustained a fracture of one of the legs and other injuries.

DEATH OF MR. DENIS MAHER.

The death occurred at his residence, Fredrick-place, this morning of Mr Denis Maher, at the age of forty years. The deceased was son of the late Mr Patrick Maher, goods agent in Limerick in the time of the Waterford and Limerick Railway Co., and brother of Mr John Maher, now stationmaster, Limerick Junction. He was up to twelve months ago on the clerical staff of the permanent way department of the Great Southern Railways at Athlone, when he retired on pension owing to ill-health. Prior to going to Athlone he was stationed in Dublin for a short time, but the greater portion of his career as an official was spent in Limerick, where he was very popular with his colleagues and citizens. He leaves a widow and young family to mourn his loss.

them to p dismissal them in : " We practice permaner Coaching from out thereby ratepayer

LIM

The fo tered—F company tered offi capital, names an articles McArthur Belfast, Charles Limerick each.

ARRE

Edwai a man n Parker's it is sta tion A in Kenn of litera nisation, other mi were tak

FASE

Latest Breeches O'Connell tested in Place you will have Jewell robbers the prei Society.