OBITUARY.

Dr. A. J. Bracken.

The death, which we record with regret,
took place on the 3rd of this month of Dr A. J. Bracken, at a comparatively early age, at his residence, 20 Campbell st., Waverley, New South Wales. The deceased gentleman, who had built up an extensive practice in the land of his adoption, was a clever and able practitioner. Some years ago he married Miss Dorothy Flynn, youngest daughter of Mrs and the late Mr J. Flynn, owner of Cruise's Royal Hotel. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs Flynn and relatives in their bereavement. Dr Bracken leaves a widow and children to mourn his loss.

Mr William Phelan.

Deep regret is felt in Newcastle West and West Limerick at the death of Mr Wm.
Phelan, hardware merchant, of that town, who passed away yesterday morning in the 76th year of his age. He was associated with the national movement all his life, and was a member of the Town Commissioners.
Of a kindly and genial disposition, he was very popular with all classes in the district, and sincere sympathy is expressed with his bereaved wife and family.

Mr J. D. Leahy, Templeglantine.

The death of Mr John D. Leahy, Templeglantine House, Abbeyfeale, occurred after an illness of some weeks at an advanced age.
Deceased occupied a prominent position amongst the agriculturists of West Limerick, was for a number of years Vice-Chairman of the old Board of Guardians and District Council, and one of the most popular and highly-esteemed men in the district. The funeral from the Parish Church to the local cemetery was very large and representative.
