DIED AT SEA ON WAY TO IRELAND.

John Burke (50), a native of Scitirati, Massachussetts, one of a party of four coming to making a tour of Ireland, and the Continent, died on the ss. Baltic on the trip from New York. The body was landed at Cobb, and will be sent back to the U.S.A for burial.

PORK OR BACON ?

In an interview accorded to a Press representative, Mr J. C. Landy, manager of the Waterford Co-operative Meat Factory, stated that bacon was going to be short in Ireland by next month, or certainly by March, and farmers in some instances might be well advised to carry on porkers to bacon weights.

FUNERAL OF MR. WM. MacDONAGH.

The funeral of Mr William MacDonagh, the oldest surviving member of the Typographical Society in the city, took place yesterday afternoon from St. Michael's Parochial Church to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.
There was a large representation of members of the Society, by whom he was held in the highest esteem and regard, as well as by numerous other friends, who were also present to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of the deceased and of sympathy with his relatives.

The clergy present were—Rev Father Thornhill, Adm., St. Michael's, and Rev
Father Harty, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were—Thomas, George and John MacDonagh (brothers), John and Patrick Slattery (cousins), and P. Moore (relative).
