PLAYING FIELDS

laying fields, having regard the thoroughfares due to been emphasised ftequently e," and at the meeting of Branch of the National iation last Saturday, the in mentioned. Mr J. J. pal of Leam's School, langers to the school going pointed out the necessity n of playing grounds for le was appointed a member ormed to promote this very and no doubt it will again Corporation in due course.

EATHER IN LOWER SHANNON.

nday. - For the past three ships which were outward eturn to Scattery roadsteads and heavy seas. The others Limerick with large cargoes. anchor for several miles, but damage done. The lower terrific condition, waves are h and the river in several lowed its banks causing a ount of damage to all low-it Cappa Pier the river has with the pier, and is flowing I. The sea wall has been y the force of the waves and ing are full of large boulders. almost impossible in that in Overcoatings and Riding had from Thos. Donovan, 29 No garment is so severely n Overcoat or Riding Breeches. herefore, with the Tailor who de to stand the severest test.

BLE INTELLIGENCE

the 1st of next month, several enquiries have already been made relative to the conditions formulated by the Committee. scheme is a great benefit to the boys of the city primary schools, who, on passing the competitive examination, have the right of entry to the secondary school for a period of The value of the not more than six years. scholarship is £15 per annum, and it can, therefore, be realised what a boon the scheme confers on the poorer classes, who would otherwise have no chance of receiving a secondary education.

DEATH OF RUGBY PLAYER.

Regret has been occurioued in the city at the death of Mr J. W. Kilpatrick, the wellknown Rugby player, which has occurred in Oldham after a brief illness. The deceased who was in the prime of life was attached to the game in Munster for some years. He first played with Dolphin, and on his transfer to Limerick, with Garryowen up to 1927 when he signed on for Oldham as profes sional. He was a good type of forward, but could play in any position, and represented Munster in inter-provincial trials against Leinster and Uster. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

The Kerry County Commissioner (Mr MacGuaigin) has been allocated £1,500 out of the Relief Fund for the £7,525 improve ment scheme of the tourist road between Cahirciveen and Sneem in the Waterville section.

Kilrush U.D.C. voted sympathy to Mr F J O'Doherty, a former Chairman, on the death of his wife, and of his son who was killed in an aeroplane crash in Cairo Condolence was passed with Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty and the priests of Killaloe diocese on the death of Mgr. McMahon, P.P., V.G. Nenagh; and with his neice, Mrs Hillary. Miltown-Malbay.

peen won by c

"Hospitals' of avoiding the of the public, staff it emple that in spite of tions made on for dealing wi was so enormo staff was phy! had to wait business atten

"Another f that those who more tickets a get them, as it last Sweep the to issue any f some time bef

Referring t is pointed or tributing the units, each di prizes for dray of £100 each & £15,000 and 2nd and 3rd l its advantages fewer prizes, p increase in su where prizes l

UPPER

Thousands and Meelish, for a distance merged. Tw districts had t

At Clare C and Miss Jos Limerick, wer and £51 178 sustained whe car driven by contractor, K