£30 consequential loss in the prosecution of his business.

The evidence for the plaintiff showed that on the 3rd last June, on coming into the main road, at a place called Duragh, between Kilrush and Ennis, his car was struck by defendant's car, which was driven by an employe. In the impact damage was sustained to the extent of £9 8s 9d.

For the defence, David Dore, the driver, stated he was taking Dr Holmes' servant to Kilkee on the day in question. He saw the hood of the plaintiff's car as it came on to the main road from a boren. The car swung towards him and in order to avoid a collision he swerved, with the result that the rere part of his car was struck and damaged, the repairs costing Dr Holmes £6 8s 10d.

His Lordship gave a decree for twenty guineas.

Mr G. Cullinan (instructed by Mr A.
 Blood-Smyth, solr.), for plaintiff, and Mr O.
 Moriarty (instructed by Mr J. S. McNeice, solr.), for defendant.

FASHIONABLE INTELLIGENCE.

Latest colourings in Overcoatings and Riding Breeches can be had from Thos. Donovan, 29 O'Connell Street. No garment is so severely tested in wear as an Overcoat or Riding Breeches.
 Place your order, therefore, with the Tailor who will have them made to stand the severest test.

While a party was returning from a dance at Cloyne, Co. Cork, the 'bus in which they were travelling came into collision with a wall near Middleton. One of the passengers, a woman, was thrown through a window of the 'bus and badly cut about the face.
