The Mayor said that the hitch that had arisen had now been remedied. He anticipated that everything would be alright, and that work would be provided for a large number of the unemployed in Limerick in the course of a month or so. Mr Nyland informed Alderman McInerney at one of the conferences that outside the firm's staff, which would include a manager, bookkeeper, a few foremen, and some mechanics, local labour would be employed.

The Board decided to await confirmation from the contractors of the agreements reached with Mr Nyland before formally declaring the contract.

DEATH OF MR KENNEDY O'BRIEN.

We regret to record the death which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning in St. John's Hospital, of Mr Kennedy O'Brien, Hartstonge street, after several weeks illness. Deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was one of the oldest licensed traders in the city. He carried on business on his own account for more than forty years, and was highly esteemed, not only in the city, but in the country districts, with which he had a wide connection. He was a native of Birdhill district, and was a man of a most kindly hearted and courteous disposition. He was a valued member of the city branch of the Licensed Trade Association. He was also a member of the Citizens and Ratepayers Society and took a keen interest in everything relating to the welfare of the city. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends will be extended to his widow and family in their bereavement.
 The funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.
