THE FREE STATE GOVERNMENT.

Will Have No Alliance With Any Party.

At a meeting in Dublin yesterday, the Free State Labour Party remained an independent party in the Government, whose proposals, however, will not accept office under the official policy of Labour. The party expresses itself in favour of the much-debated question of re-opening that matter as well as a complete financial settlement, by negotiation with Great Britain.

AM RECITAL AT ST. JOHN'S PAVILION.

It proved a most enjoyable entertainment place on Thursday and Friday at St. John's Pavilion, when a Musical Recital, produced by the National Acoustic Corporation, in conjunction with the Marconiphone, Ltd, was presented for the first time in Limerick to very large audiences. The proceeds were for a very deserving object, the St. Vincent de Paul. Mr Jones, of the National Acoustic Corporation, thanked Messrs Marconiphone, Ltd., for their entertainment by thanking the
