THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

Weekly Cattle and Sheep Market.

Wednesday, March 16th.—Cattle—Increased numbers on offer, more useful cattle than last week, trade opened on active lines and was maintained while suitable lots were offered for sale; beef, good demand with a free sale at full previous rates, ready exchange, young cows came for attention. Stores with age and condition and willing purchasers; in ordinary stores they were a useful show to draw upon, but demand was quieter than recent markets for bullocks; heifers were in strong demand and readily cashed; inquiry for nice two-year-old dairy heifers, amongst yearlings, heifers with shapes and colour keen request at top values, prices well maintained with a firm tendency. Fair steady trade for useful sorts. Usual attendance and a fair clearance. Fat heifers, £17—£22; bullocks, £8; cows, £10—£14; two-year-old heifers, £12 11s—£14; second run, £9 5s—£11; two-year-old bullocks, £8 7s 6d—£12 2s 6d; yearling heifers, £8 2s 6d—£11 2s; second run, £5 2s 6d—£7 17s; bullocks, £5 2s 6d—£8 6s. Sheep—Average supply, and a good show, trade firm and quick, full previous rates, and a turn dearer for best pens. Market well sold up. Fat middle weight, £3—£3 16s; small, £2 7s 6d—£2 18s; wethers, fat, £2 7s 6d—£2 18s; stores, £1 11s—£1 13s.—Wm. B. Pitt, Auctioneer.
