

ation is received."

SURVEYOR TO IGN.

B.A., B.E., Borough Sanitary Officer, is positions at an early
lled that some time
ieved of the duties of fficer, but was asked cision and complied

ected to the office of ty-three years ago, in
e Mr W. E. Corbett, popular officer, and
f office he carried out e improvement of the creting of the streets

A member of an old
naturally takes a keen of the city. He has so far as his official
to bring Limerick een most painstaking
charging the onerous n him. His resigna-
before the Corporation
is learned with great
and Mr Peacocke's
h him many years of t.

ADARE.

ges Gutted.

morning the City Fire
oned by 'phone call to Adare. When the
tain Hogan, arrived
ment they found that ging to the Dunraven
lved, and local people
o subdue the outbreak
ne. Captain Hogan
tely concentrated on the garages, and this ng after working for application in a body to attend the ceremonies.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF LIVERPOOL.

Dr. Downey's Visit.

The Mayor (Ald. P. J. Donnellan) at a meeting of the Corporation Improvement Committee last night, said he had arranged with Miss Collins, teacher at the Municipal Technical Institute, for the preparation of the parchment scroll bearing the Freedom of the City to His Grace the Most Rev. Dr.
Downey, Archbishop of Liverpool, on the occasion of his forthcoming visit to Limerick. The casket was also being made at the Institute, and would cost £18.

DEATH OF MR. J. MURPHY, CASTLECONNELL.

The death has occurred, after a brief illness, at his residence, Inglesby House, Castleconnell, of Mr Jeremiah Murphy, a member of an old and respected West Limerick family. The deceased gentleman, who resided for many years at Fort Emil, Newport, Tipperary, was highly respected by all because of his loveable disposition and neighbourly tendencies.

The funeral from Castleconnell on the 6th inst. to the family burial-place at Askeaton Abbey was largely attended. The chief mourners were—Mrs J. Murphy (widow), Mr William Murphy, N.T. (brother), Miss E. Murphy and Mrs P. Halpin (sisters), Mr P. Halpin (brother-in-law), Dr William Murphy (son) and Mrs W. Murphy (Kensig Hill, Bridgend), Mr and Mrs E. J. O'Neill, Mr and Mrs V. Funchion, Mr and Mrs P. J.
Cusack, the Misses M. and E. Halpin (nieces).

The Very Rev. Canon Reidy, P.P., Askeaton, and Fr. Bluett, C.C., officiated.

THE POTEEN EVIL.

Traffic Effects on Northern Liquor Trade.

One of the arguments advanced in Northern Ireland in favour of a reduction of the beer and spirit duties is that an excessive amount of poteen is manufactured in illicit

In the Supreme
Justice, Mr Justi
Justice Murnaghan,
of John Moloney, &

It was an appeal
Justice Hanna, rev
ministration made
taker of the Chambe
rick, and ordering
Mrs Bridget Quig
Knockaney, Knock
one of the next-of-ki Molony, of Ballymo

It was stated on that administration
him after a citation Kate McInerney, o
race, Youghal, who deceased, and on M Knocklong, another

The Court dism
costs, and affirmed
Order. In the Court
against James Wa
Court now ordered t
should be paid out o
valued at about £1,

For the Appellar
K.C., and Mr Dan
MacNamara and Co
For the Responde
and Mr W. Moloney Kenny and Burke).

Limerick

Tuesday at

Saturday,

HO

Fly

In this senior cu
Saturday on L.P.Y