

at the Market-house
3, and packing of fish

This affords employ-hands, and as two more there will be a material and for workers. The ng even further afield enterprise, for with trade it is hoped to set stry for the conversion

l. Mr Seamus Murphy, ciation, expressed him-f the prospects of the ing beginning, he said, he had no doubt that would be shown with

"We have," he added,
with a view to securing fish in this country for ntry," and as such the y success as an import-

It is always a pleasure lopment in Irish enter-
e. place, none more so time, with depression o rife amongst us. The a welcome note in Irish a, and as such deserves possible. It should,
e a big demand for fish,
nd parts of the country,
t a negligible quantity.

ER TIME.

nes into force at 2 a.m.

commended to advance our before retiring on

CTION EXPENSES.

been erected by the Monks of St. Benedict at Glenstal Castle. The ceremony was followed by Solemn High Mass, at which Dr Harty presided. There was a large attendance of clergy and laity.

The guests, which included M. Goor, Belgian Consul, Dublin, and M. Alphand, representative of the Government of the French Republic in Dublin, were subsequently entertained to luncheon by Dom Gerard Francois, Prior.

MOST REV. DR. DOWNEY.

The Most Rev. Dr. Downey, Archbishop of Liverpool, was the guest of honour at a banquet in Enniscorthy last night.

His Grace will visit Limerick next Thursday, and in the afternoon will be presented with the Freedom of the City by the Corporation. He will deliver a lecture at night.

COUNTY LIMERICK WOMAN WHO LIVED 111 YEARS.

A Native of Glenstal.

Mrs Julia Hartnett, Main street, Cappamore, has died at the age of 111 years, only a few days after the death of her son, Rev.
J. Hartnett, C.M., at the age of 83, in U.S. A.

Mrs Hartnett, who enjoyed remarkable health up to a short time before her death, had clear recollection of O'Connell and his contemporaries. She was a native of Glenstal, and was relict of the late John Hartnett, Moher House, Murroe.

Every year for almost a quarter of a century Father Hartnett travelled across the Atlantic to visit his mother. He had intended coming for the Eucharistic Congress.

LARGE PEREGRINE FALCON.

A peregrine falcon, measuring 3ft. 2ins. from tip to tip of wings, and 18 inches from beak to tip of tail, was shot near Castle-townbere. The bird, which was on view in the town, came in for a good deal of atten-

Chairman - we manufactured in Li
to be a most impor
Irish milling ind
very peculiar statu
Health Board cou
Irish milled bakers
got two tenders
month ago, and t
two Limerick firms
the flour is being r

Mr Mitchell said that the City Heal
for Irish milled bal
by the Chairman
attention from all
industry.

The matter was
SWEEPS

Dr. Irwin said t
of Mental Hospital
Mr Bourke some
with them the co grant would be ma
the Irish Hospital
mittee had prepare
but as a result of t Kelly it was decid
for the building
would be capable 100 extra patients
would also be ca
building of veran theatre. It was i grant that the Con
all the insane patie City Home and suggested that the
but subsequent g
amount to £20,000

Mr Bourke said
the grant that the County Home and transferred to the
was the proper pla Health Board was
for various reasons
had accepted the c
the Limerick Co
promptly there wa may be lost. He matter, but he