SOUTHERN RAILWAYS MEETING.

Deputation to Wait on Minister.

A joint meeting of directors and shareholders of the Great Southern Railways was held at the Company's offices, Kingsbridge, on Thursday, at which there was a long consideration of what steps might be taken towards sending a deputation to wait on the Minister for Industry and Commerce and state the Company's case.

Letters were read from a number of the Bishops, and after a discussion a deputation was appointed from the shareholders. The representative of the directors will be nominated at the next Board meeting of the Company.

CO. LIMERICK FARMER'S SAD FATE.

Drowned in a Well.

Thomas Neville, aged 55, a well-to-do farmer, residing at Lismakerry, Shanagolden, was found drowned in a well near his home on Thursday morning. He was a married man, and his wife is very ill at present. He was apparently in good health when he retired to rest the previous night. His wife was the only person who resided in the house with him.
