

cene of battle on more
nd was a very ancient

roceeded to refer to the owadays for something
; he said, had ever
as past. In the eighth
ame over for week-ends,
Monday—(laughter)—
Saturday to Thursday, remain altogether, until
ary of them and ejected Applause). "I do not
the Archbishop, "that nch of this city upon
not been fought, but the Limerick has witnessed ome sieges. It had a ndon and Dublin, and should congratulate the
bered amongst the long
s of the city from the Having given a brief
ey of the story of King owney proceeded to say
was a mighty river.
of old chroniclers
ist river in the United d that superlative, which eal, and was pleased to nnon which had been
din of battle in the past conquies. They could do this as well as every cause they were very
y who travelled abroad
tions held by Irishmen own land. They were positions as industrial other ways ruling the
ld, and moulding history attern than before they n their own shores.
nen possessed a wander-ould be precious little ay were it not for the Irish Missionaries in the enturies.

e Eucharistic Congress, would be a great success g of great things for Kilrush Council's Sympathy.

At a special meeting of the Kilrush Urban District Council, Mr Thomas Nagle, who presided, proposed a resolution of sympathy with the widow and relatives of the late Capt. William Redmond. The Redmonds, he said, were a family that would be remembered for generations to come in Ireland, and especially in Clare. They were very popular, and whenever Captain Redmond visited Clare he got an enthusiastic reception. He was a national figure, and Ireland was poorer by his loss.

Mr Crotty seconded the resolution, which was passed unanimously.

DEATH OF MR. T. P. SAVAGE.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Thomas P. Savage, which occurred at the City Hospital last night after a protracted illness. The deceased was eldest son of the late Mr T. Savage, Roche's-street, and brother of Mrs M. Burke, Catherine-street. He was a well-known and popular citizen, having been closely identified with the production of local theatricals for a long number of years. His activities were chiefly devoted to the Dramatic Class attached to St. Michael's Temperance Society, where his services as coach were highly appreciated. Possessing rare gifts in the technique of dramatic art, his services were freely given to the different societies in the city which catered for the drama, held particularly on behalf of charitable agencies. A keen wit and interesting conversationalist, his companionship was greatly valued by a wide circle of friends, who will regret his demise, and extend sympathy to his family in their bereavement.

Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.

At the close a verse of the Papal Hymn was sung.

The Archbishop will lecture at St. John's Pavilion to-night on—"The Church and Modern Thought."

Mr McCormack
Bounty proposal o
ture, said dairy farm
an unprecedented
They had, consequ
for the steps he
from ruin. His
for butter would, b
industry, which w ing in this country
tangible was done
who were not ask
but a scheme to t
depression. He n
thank Dr Ryan for farmers.

Mr Quin second
supported by Mr M
and adopted unani

LATE SIR J

On the motion
of sympathy was t
of the late Sir Ho

COMBINED PURCHA

The Committe
resolution calling
combined purchasi

Mr Fahy said
failure in many res
be empowered to
firms as the result

The Chairman s

LIMERICK

New Ste

Christened

The new steam
Limerick Steam Sl
at Dundee last
Morley, London, v
Limerick, perform
mony, and smashe
on the bows of
customary bottle

TODD'S VALUERS
Knot Ladies' Hos
ls. 4½d. Imposs