CONDOLENCE.

At the meeting of Limerick Co. Council to-day, resolutions of condolence were passed with the widow of the late Captain W. A. Redmond, T.D., D.S.O.; the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Keane, on the death of Very Rev. J. Canon Lee, P.P., V.F., Bruff; the relatives of the late Mrs Persse, St. Enda's, Dublin; and Mr E. J. Mitchell, a member of the Council, on the death of his brother-in-law, the late Dr Keogh, Emly.

SANITARY PROSECUTIONS.

At the District Court yesterday,

The Corporation prosecuted a number of people for failure to comply with the Public Health Acts in not having effective sanitary connections carried out.

The Justice made an order in every case for having the Acts complied with within three months.

DEATH OF MRS MARGARET PEARSE.

The death took place unexpectedly at St. Enda's, Rathfarnham, last night, of Mrs Margaret Pearse, widow of the late James Pearse and mother of the late Patrick and William Pearse, two Republican leaders who were executed after the 1916 rebellion. Mrs Pearse was 75 years of age.
