

akin to alarm. Submitted to the Chief Veterinary Officer of food that constringer to the particularly to a decided im- and while there before the city vended under- ing to find that not relaxed its t the meeting of l of Health on on was revived he Government to the city for a children of neces- drafted by the the Secretary in outlined. These o the effect that five years, whose home assistance, the extent of two ae setting up of d inter alia that to a veterinary scheme has been ernment Depart- lum that when ion of the Board y of the standard ne and Hospital. e standard is, but coincide with the ary Inspector to ecommended that o what is known This however hibits. The industrial and trade sections have been liberally supported, and this is demonstrated by the fact that all the space in the Industrial Hall has been booked up for some considerable time past. Provided the weather remains fine the attendance on both days should reach large proportions, even though the economic position of the country has suffered considerably during the past couple of months.

FUNERAL OF MRS HUGH WHITE.

The funeral of Mrs Hugh White, formerly of Ballyneale, Ballingarry, took place on Tuesday last in Dublin. The first portion of the service was held in the Mageough Church. The choir sang the 23rd Psalm and hymn "Nearer my God to Thee." The large attendance of friends and relations at the service testified to the esteem and affection which was felt for the late Mrs White.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Schuster, Mrs Abbott, and Miss White (daughters), Rev Canon T. F. Abbott, and Mr George Schuster (sons-in-law), Major R. J. Cox (nephew), Mr Knowles Stewart (cousin)

Floral tributes were sent by "Babs," Connie and George, Ishbel and Frank, Phoebe, Eileen Bennett, George and Frank Bennett, Sara, Doctor Everina Massy, Netta and Georgie, Brad, Geraldine, Nora Maunsell, Kathleen Hamilton, Lil and Sem, Mrs Overend and Booth family, Mrs Meyers, Denis and Ralph, Miss Wifer, Mr Coulter, Mrs McKeogh, Mrs McConkie, "Mageough Square," etc

The concluding portion of the service was held at Mount Jerome, the grave being tastefully lined with flowers and moss.

The Rev Canon T. F. Abbott, Rector of St. Michael's, Limerick (son-in-law), officiated at the church and the graveside.

HOUSING IN NEWCASTLE WEST.

Mr J. D. Brouder, Co.C., Chairman, at a meeting of the Newcastle West Town Commissioners, said it was necessary that they should take steps to expedite the

Mr D. O'Donovan, so Sheehan, and Mr P. G. Meany.

Dr W. P. Dundon gave examined Meany after th He found that he was suff and bruises. He had a lac one side of the head, and on the left shoulder and c hours he thought complice and in his opinion the inj violence.

John Lloyd, in evidence the date in question he brother-in-law had gone t pony, which had been in Witness followed Sheeha got there he saw Meany, w pony. The witness was t was in a stable, and as he the animal he was str knocked down and kick, procured a pitchfork, chas the place, and eventually a the weapon.

Giving evidence, Sheehan went to Meany's place to was assaulted by the de Lloyd.

Meany stated that on question Sheehan and L place and demanded the them the animal was in get it. They then becam struck Lloyd in self-de attacked. He was kno beaten, Sheehan using bru-h. There was no tr tion that he struck either but admitted having it in frighten them. After Lloyd wrested the pitch with it. While on the g struck him with the fork.

Corroborative evidence Meany.

The Justice said as the flicting he would reserve l fortnight.

MR MOLLISON'

Through Clouds