

On Tuesday, in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Ennistymon, the marriage was celebrated of Miss Molly O'Dwyer, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward O'Dwyer, Golf Links Hotel, Lahinch and Ennistymon, Co. Clare, and Mr Christopher A. Kelly, Inspector, Irish Land Commission, Ballina, son of Mr and Mrs E. Kelly, Imperial Hotel, Ballinasloe.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a gown of parchment satin, with train, and wore a veil of Carrickmacross lace, held at each side with sprays of orange blossom. She carried a sheaf of cream roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Celia O'Dwyer, sister of the bride, wore a frock of peach angel skin, with cape, finished with feather trimming, same shade, and carried a posy of violets.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Antonine Kelly, O.F.M., brother of the bridegroom, assisted by the Rev. Canon Carr, P.P., V.F., Ennistymon; the Rev. J. Jordan, C.C.; the Rev. J. O'Reilly, C.C., and the Rev. John Kelly, C.C., Tulla.

The best man was Mr P. J. O'Dwyer.

During the Service the choir rendered sacred music. Following the Nuptial Mass the Papal blessing was given by the celebrant.

After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the Golf Links Hotel, Lahinch, for the wedding breakfast.

Mr and Mrs C. A. Kelly left for England.
