a manner dangerous to the public, and with causing grievous bodily harm to Thomas McAuliffe, Ballagh, Abbeyfeale, on the 8th February.

Mr G. Cullinan (instructed by Mr J. P. Lavan, solicitor) appeared for the defence.

The State Solicitor applied for an adjournment to next sittings, as the hearing in the court below had only been concluded last week.

His Lordship acceded to the application, and allowed the accused out on continuing bails.

DEATH OF MISS PAULINE BAKER.

We regret to announce the death of Miss Pauline Baker, which took place last Tuesday at Lismalore House, Brookborough, Co. Fermanagh, where she resided with a married sister, since she left Limerick six years ago. The deceased lady, who had only been ailing a month, was a daughter of the late Mr Edward Baker, seed-merchant, No. 8 O'Connell Street, and sister of Mrs D. O'Donovan, Lansdowne Villas, Ennis Road. She was of a very kindly and amiable disposition, and her death at a comparatively early age will be learned with regret by a wide circle of friends, and sympathy extended to the members of her family in their bereavement.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence.
