

the memories associated with Day. They would not forget, never forget as long as they that day signified. The young day could not realise the utter of the youth who in that fought for their country, and cause which they felt was right. Memorial services, the preacher ex- demanded more than a tribute to y of those who had made the crifice; they must also remember those of them who had survived es of war, but came back nd, wounded, and to-day were rom acute unemployment, ill- poverty. Talking about wars, nest desire of the world to end preacher said they had a chance, h it be a chance, to outlaw war eration. Later on he referred to is to Scotland, and seeing a stone e with the simple inscription, Haig." He said that Lady Haig him that it was her husband's e buried with the same simple over his grave as would apply to soldier, who died in France or She spoke to him of Earl Haig's d, and his utterly simple life, and it desire that she should do all n the cause of the ex-service men. ded the preacher, let them not stern reality of duty on their part es disabled.

rtory, as at Evensong, when Rev bell again preached to a large on, was in aid of Earl Haig's und, and available for relief in City and district.

close of the Morning Service the bells rang out a merry peal.

JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.
ndreds of ex Servicemen attended a Mass at 12 noon in St. John's It was celebrated by Rev. Father who, in the course of a brief hofted the large congregation to eir dead. The occasion was, he y sad one for very many of them, at back memories of departed nd friends whom they had held

THE WAR MEMORIAL.
onclusion of the Requiem Mass body of ex-Servicemen, wearing decorations and headed by the relinquished tentatively a month ago.

LIMERICK DOCTOR'S DEATH IN LONDON.

The death has taken place at Sydenham, London, of Dr John Mulqueen, a member of a well-known Limerick family. He was brother of Mr P. Mulqueen, Rosbrien, and had built up a lucrative practice in London, where he resided for a number of years. Much sympathy is felt for his widow and the members of his family in their bereavement.

DEATH OF A CORK JOURNALIST.

Not only by his colleagues in Limerick, but by a large number of other friends in this city and county, the news of the death of Mr Robert W. Ludgate, a valued member of the reporting staff of the "Cork Examiner," has been heard of with sincere regret. He passed away at the South Infirmary, Cork, last Sunday, after a prolonged illness. Mr Ludgate, who was, it might be said, in the prime of life, was an all round journalist, whether as regards ordinary public events, or in the realms of sport. In every respect he discharged his duties with high ability and courtesy, and his engagements frequently brought him to Limerick, where he was very highly esteemed by all, who appreciated him for his sterling qualities of head and heart. Deep sympathy is expressed with his widow and son and daughter in their bereavement.

DEATH OF MRS L. CHRISTY.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at her residence, 17 Barrington Street, this morning of Mrs Lily Christy, after an illness of some months duration. The deceased was widow of the late Mr John Christy; sister of the late Rev Father Quinlan, P.P., Kildimo, and mother of Miss M. Christy, chemist at Messrs Laird's, O'Connell Street, with whom sincere sympathy will be felt in her bereavement. The funeral, which is private, will take place at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning for Mount St. Lawrence.

MR COSGRAVE'S CENSURE MOTION.

In Daily To-day

Private Present, Tr
The Lynx, Cassiope
Won by 3l; one

LEICESTER
Unlikely (9 to 2)
Bunch (7 to 1)
Strathcarron (10
Also ran—Galv
Rivalry, Eldorado,
Won by 1½ l.; he

APETHO
Kiss Me Quick (1
Hebbie Jeebie (1 Bunkawai (6 to
Also ran—Swor
Tonyx, Lady Woc
Repentance, Whit
Beautiful Shot, Ros
Won by 1½ l.

STOUGH Bureaucrat (7 to Abbot's Ferry (1 Strathallan (9 to
Also ran—Feedi
Won by 6 length

RUGBY
Teams f

The following an
the final trial in Co
MUNSTER—F
left wing threequar
Munsters); left ce
Vere Hunt (Lond
threequarter, J. O
wing threequarter,
and London Irish)
(U.C.C.); in-half, l
forwards, T. Cas
T. Daly (Constit
(Bohemians), J.
Murphy (Constituti
O'Neill (U.C.C.), M
J. Russell (U.C.C.)

THE REST—
(U.C.C.); left wing
(Bohemians); left Reardon (Constitu
quarter, M. O'Conr
right wing th
(U.C.C.); out-half,
sters); in-half, M
Munsters); forward
T. Hickey (Young
(Garryowen). K.
Briordan (Dublin)