

decision to bear their fair share of the cost of a drainage project. That being so, the only reasonable deduction to be drawn is that the other party to the proposal, the Board of Works, has not shown sufficient appreciation in expediting a most necessary work, and thus relieve the inhabitants of Cappamore from the dangers, suffering, and hardship, that have been caused by the overflow of the river which passes their doors.

LIMERICK LADY'S DEATH AT CHELTENHAM

We regret to announce the death which took place on Saturday last at Glenmore, the Park, Cheltenham, of Mrs Betty Eden, widow of Mr Gerald Rodney Eden, of Rhydyrbelg Sketty, Glamorganshire. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Right Rev. Thomas Bunlury, D.D., who was Bishop of Limerick from 1899 to 1907, and the news of her demise will be heard of with sorrow by numerous friends in city and county.

THE LATE LORD EMLY.

In proposing a resolution of condolence with the relatives of the late Lord Emly, at the meeting of the County Agricultural Committee yesterday, Mr M. Quinlan said the deceased Baron had been associated with that Committee for very many years as chairman. He was a nobleman who had advocated the interests of the community, and had given close attention to the administrative affairs of the county. His death was deeply regretted by everyone who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Mr E. J. Mitchell seconded the resolution, which was passed in silence.
