

It is only in a position for one-eighth of the world to be to the benefit of public bodies were able to of industry, from the former and in the matter At the meeting of the yesterday the subject was on to the case made by have the claims of the consideration when the decision to make a choice factories. Mr. T. J. member of the Development that organisation would startedly in the movement. could be expected from a its main idea the revival and the initiation of ed to provide employ- who are now on the home John McCormack, Chair- y Council, who takes a very movement for the and county, is keenly of Limerick for a beet vinced that we can offer comparable than any other ment on the subject at rd leaves no room for point of view. Of y consideration is in a farmers here to grow nerative price, and this plished on the basis of paid from Central funds. it of transport facilities mirably equipped. The not be better, while gation places us in tion compared with re in the country.

Benediction. The other officiating clergy- men were—The Archdeacon of Limerick and the Rev. W. Doherty.

DEATH OF MRS. K. ANGLELY.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs K. S. Angley, widow of Mr W. P. Angley, of Limerick, which took place yesterday at her residence, 14 Winton Avenue, Rathgar, Dublin. The deceased lady, who had attained an advanced age, will be remembered by numerous friends in this city who had the pleasure of her acquaintance and her bright and genial manner during her long residence in Limerick up to some years ago, when she went to Dublin to live with her son, the late Mr Ernest W. Angley, then representative for the firm of Messrs W. J. Shaw & Son in the Metropolis. Another of her sons was the late Mr Godfrey P. Angley, formerly a director of the firm of Messrs. Harrison Lee & Sons, City Foundry. The funeral (private) to take place to St Mary's Cathedral on arrival of the 9.30 a.m. train from Kingsbridge to morrow.

DEATH OF MR. C. SHEEHAN.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place on Sunday evening at his residence 7 Mount Kennet Terrace, Lime- rick, of Mr Cornelius Sheehan, who for many years was in charge of the dress department of Messrs. Todd and Company. He had been in failing health for some time past, and his passing has caused deep regret to the firm, his colleagues, and the general public, by whom he was highly esteemed for his affable and courteous manner and excellent business capacity. He was a native of Castletown Conyers, Co. Limerick, and to his widow, who is a member of an old city family, and relatives sincere sym- pathy is extended in their bereavement. The funeral, which took place this afternoon from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was large and repre- sentative.

ABBAY FISHERMEN'S EXPERIENCE.

Mayor appealed for and paid a tribute to management and sub-

BEEET FA

Limerick

Mr T. J. Loughrey Harbour Board yest movement initiated proposed beet sugar f It was understood the contemplated establish in the Free State, the County Agricultur the question was int so, the Board shoul Committee in the ma Mr J. McCormack Council) said there Limerick should not forward their claim it was proposed to e when the Carlow fi conference was held purpose of having for a site. It that Limerick ha but the Governmen elined to embark on the Carlow factory w now been demonstra product was quite a sugar imported into also established th capable of meeting t and that being so oportune time to pi rick. They had he Government being a vival, and he saw no with its advantages, for a factory. The lan ing beet, and from th port facilities the city by rail, road, and They had a magnific service, while some were capable of e French expert on the had stated that Lim for a beet factory fro