The lady assistants in Mr W. Magner's tobacco shop in Mitchel street, Clonmel, spent a very unpleasant hour or so on Wednesday (fair day), when a bullock which rushed into the premises got tightly jammed between the counter and the wall, and was only released when the services of a near-by carpenter were requisitioned. The shop counter was considerably damaged as a result of the animal's frenzied efforts to escape.

LEGION HUT BURNED AT KILLALOE.

At four o'clock yesterday morning the British Legion hut at Killaloe was seen to be on fire. Within a short time it had been completely burned out. The outbreak is thought to have been malicious, but no arrests have been made up to the present.

THE ITALIAN AIRMEN.

No News in Derry Yet.

There was no definite news in Derry yesterday as to when the Italian trans-Atlantic air squadron will reach the city, as the weather on the route between Italy and Amsterdam is not favourable.

BOY DROWNED NEAR ASKEATON.

Michael Nash, aged 6, was drowned in the river near Askeaton. He went out after his dinner and was not seen again until two fishermen found his body floating down the river.

N.S.P.C.C.

In the report of the annual general meeting of the Limerick Branch of above Society the names of the following ladies were inadvertently omitted from the list of those present:—Mrs. White, The See House; Mrs. A. Woodhouse, Miss Shine.
