

leached.

Chamberlain took on the subject of encies. There is a stage of the leached, and that follow a delay in stions. European ng Britain to link ailing agreement, the Conference.

IS TO BERLIN.

f the Reichsbank, rs. in a private

ck.

RED

Workers.

Miss E. Hewson.

Numerous friends in the Co. Limerick and elsewhere have heard with sincere regret of the death, which occurred in Cork on June 26, of Miss Elizabeth M. Hewson, of Holly-wood, Adare. A member of an old county family, she was a daughter of the late Mr. George J. Hewson, who was a well-known antiquarian in his day, and a Fellow of the Royal Antiquarian Society of Ireland. Miss Hewson inherited her father's literary tastes and research. She was also a lover of music, and at one time was voluntary organist of Adare Parish Church. She was held in the highest regard and affection by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Miss Hewson had been in failing health for some time past. Deep sympathy is expressed with her relatives in their bereavement.

Mr. R. Quinlan.

The death of Mr Robert Quinlan, Parnell street, has been learned with regret in the city. The sad event took place in the County Infirmary early on Monday morning, following an attack of pneumonia, which developed after a few days. The deceased was a well known turf commission agent for some years back, and in that respect had built up a big connection. To his widow and family the sympathy of numerous friends is given in their bereavement.

THE MAYOR.

The Mayor (Councillor P. F. Quinlan) desires us to state that he can be seen at his office, Town Hall, each morning from 11 to 12 o'clock, and anybody wishing to have an interview with him outside that hour can do so by appointment.

PERSONAL.

If you require definitely good tailoring, i.e., good materials, with a wide range of patterns to select from, and good workmanship, at really moderate prices, your enquiries will be esteemed by SHEKLETON & LAWLER, 30 O'CONNELL ST., LIMERICK. Phone 161.

was a very open issue up to it veered in favour of Cour who gained a victory over t nominee in the final division of three votes, the Labour e eliminated in the first poll. Councillor Quinlan has been satisfaction by the majority especially the commercial c have followed with approv in the Council since he was member two years ago. active though unobtrusive the promotion of schemes of the people, and giv assistance in all question sound administration. A discharge of his public du Quinlan has not been s civic administration when oc and, like the other n party, voted for the reco Inspector MacLysaght for form. A man of progressive he has been prominently ide commercial life of the city with the motor industry, member of the Developme The traditions and dignity office of Mayor will t custody of Councillor Qu count on the loyal suppo ration and citizens in tl the duties imposed upon his diate predecessor in office, Donnellan, tributes were servedly so, on Saturday by tives of all sections in the diguified manner in which l himself during his three ye the civic chair. In that p and far-reaching events to city and country, and in w pated as Mayor. On ev comported himself in a r the event with which he wa reflected credit on himself. The citizens may take it th Quinlan's term of office c similar tributes will be his Corporation that elected hi honour in their gift will ht regret their choice.