But that will take tob much cannot be ining, especially when eared up and matters Everything ed out. on the person who will responsible position of city is fortunate in of a man like Mr P. will not be long until vay to progress and e assumed office some financial position of was very far from ouncil had a load of ing to £138,000. This lated. Not only has of that huge sum but ; of the nunicipality n the rates have been ne £, and schemes of ousing, carried out on 1 4 reduction in the lork Council, business carried through, unlike thich has a proneness entirely outside the ess for which it was fying to realise that d promptly in deciding dings of his inspector, red every branch of Judging from the trend at Thursday night's if the principles of the applied to Limerick, as e to our requirements e sure. A Committee to act in consultation er in drafting the heads this has been done the ted to the Minister for of Mr Joseph Egan, Old Wellington Terrace, Limerick, who was on the bank, jumped in fully dressed, and managed, with some difficulty, to get the thoroughly exhaused lady safely ashere

Miss Egan's pluck—and, above all, her promptitude in dashing in without losing a second—were much praised by many who saw the rescue, and were not near enough to render assistance. She is a strong swimmer, but even with this advantage she ran the very serious risk of being clutched and dragged down by the lady in difficuties. The latter, who did not give her name, was taken to her hotel, where she was attended to, and was none the worse of her thrilling experience.

FATAL FALL.

Mr J. S. MacNeice, City Coroner, without a jury, held an inquest last night touching the circumstances of the death of Mary Anne Maher, 8 Cross Road, Thomondgate.

Margaret Maher identified the body as that of her mother, aged 72 years. Witness stated deceased was in the habit of walking around the kitchen, and at 9 o'clock yesterday she fell near the back door and struck the back of her head against the ground. Witness immediately placed her on a chair, deceased said "Oh my poor head." She did not notice any wound on the head of her mother. Two years ago deceased was attended by Doctor Foley.

Daniel Maher, baker, stated he went to the house and saw his mother sitting on the side of the bed, and on seeing she was unwell he immediately went for Dr Holmes.

Dr J. G. Holmes said the cause of death in his opinion was due to shock and fracture of the skull. The wound could be caused by a fall on to the ground. The woman was dead when he arrived.

The Coroner returned a verdict to the effect that death was due to shock and fractured skull, sustained accidentally.

POOR CHILDREN'S OUTING.

At the Corporation meeting on Thursday night the Mayor expressed sincere thanks to

TO THE EDITOR OF THE

DEAR SIR,—As me boat "Foyle" party, through the medium of to express our sincere t McMahon and the cre "Eire," and to Mr Ge crew of the motor yach manful and gallant a difficult circumstances. our very trying expe Shannon on Sunday las shaft coupling of our b appreciate deeply the s to render us in our plig like to convey to Cal Harbour Master, our gr messages sent to the i ance. We would like how very difficult it wa to render us any aid. -

The members of the J. O'Do Limerick, 4th Augus

£6,000 WO3TH 0

Stolen from 1 London Re

Miniatures on a la ivory, an old man with onyx ring, set with a sr of an eye, were among worth of jewellery stole O'Brien, Upper Berkel Thursday night.

The thieves entered forced a basement wi drawingroom and bed floors.

Hon. Mrs O'Brien Donough O'Brien, hal Lord Inchiquin.

CHURCH S

ST. MARY'S CATHEDI Trinity—Holy Communic