

" gives an account of five ladies ages range from 79 to 102 years, and whom the Society receives regular collectors, or knitting workers home, or subscribers. The of course, are assiduous and self-ing in every good cause, and the Institution is no exception to the Here in Limerick there is an active Guild in connection with the local of the Institution, and the work of the annual Flag Day and in other ns has proved of material benefit to nds of the Society. There are us branches in Ireland, and they are ng good work in helping a very ng cause, despite the scarcity of in the times through which we are

LIMERICK LOCOMOTIVE WORKS.
 A strong plea was made at a meeting of ant railwaymen held yesterday in the ics' Institute for a fair share of the works being executed at the Limerick tive department. The meeting was ed by Deputies of the constituency ntative of the three political parties State, two of whom, ex employes of eat Southern Railways, are thoroughly sant with the conditions as they apply workers of the department. As all airs to rolling stock are now carried Inchicore, the Limerick industry is ly non-existent, with the result that a umber of the men have been thrown employment. What this means to the an be deduced from the fact that ney earned by them has ceased to a to the business community. It is d that this represented something like 00 annually, and Limerick can ill

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

Munster Branch Sub-Committee.

Mr P. Galbraith (Chairman) presided at a Sub-Committee meeting of the Munster Branch of the Irish Rugby Union at Cruise's Hotel last night for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

At the outset, the Chairman expressed his thanks and appreciation to the various Committees that worked under him during his two years' term of office. They had worked with the greatest harmony and enthusiasm, and in that way his tenure of office was rendered pleasant and agreeable.

Mr T. Keyes paid a tribute to the work done by Mr Galbraith, who suitably replied.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year:—Dr. M. Graham, chairman; Mr T. Keyes, vice-chairman; and Mr J.
 O'Donovan, hon. secretary and treasurer.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A middle aged woman named Margaret Rochford, Garryowen, collapsed and died suddenly on Sunday morning. She was, it appears, after returning home from 9 o'clock Mass in St. John's Cathedral, and complained of not being well. The circumstances were communicated to the City Coroner, Mr J. S. McNeice, who did not consider an inquest necessary on Dr Holmes certifying that the woman died of heart failure.

STREET ACCIDENT.

Maura O'Connor, aged 15 years, was knocked down in Edward street last night by a motor lorry. She was crossing the road, and although the driver did his best to avoid striking her he did not succeed.
 She was removed to Barrington's Hospital in the lorry, and was detained for injuries to the head. Her condition to-day was stated to be improved.

CO. LIMERICK BOY'S BRAVERY

RECOGNISED.

The Royal Humane Society has given a medal to John S. Maloney van) for (instruct

ST.

Harv

The an vices wer Cathedra
 profusely ladies of with seas chrysanth relieved while fr
 a very br
 The speci was sung choir of Muspratt
 ing Servi all wait u song "G
 Fred Mo
 compositi

The sp
 the Very appointe
 Dublin, spiritual in conne work of were dev
 The c
 Lord Bis
 Russell,
 deacon,
 were pre

CO.

Mr J
 County
 the me
 Educati
 the day
 Commit
 11.30 o directio third W
 the me
 to min