

ages, but vital defects; reconstituted capitalism—no general agreement as to how to rebuild. Both assume that man is so wise and so good as to require no control by the moral law. Right of association, just price, wages, just division of profits, rights and obligations of ownership and of labour, the family, marriage, the origin and limits of authority of the civil power.

Admission to the lecture is free, and it is hoped that the citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing an eminent authority deal with a subject which is of extreme importance at the present time.

OBSEQUIES OF DR. M. J. MALONE.

The funeral of Dr. M. J. Malone, Pery Square, took place from St. Michael's Church after Requiem Mass yesterday morning to Mount St. Laurence Cemetery, and was attended by numerous friends of the deceased gentleman, who was so highly respected and esteemed in his native city where over sixty years of his professional life were spent.

The chief mourner was Captain M. J. Malone B.L., (son).

The clergy present were—Rev. Fr. Harty, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Dr. Cowper, do.; Rev. Fr. Carroll, do.; Rev. Fr. McWilliams, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Meany, S.J.

Amongst the general public were—Sir V. Nash, Mr H. Nash, Dr. J. Devane, Dr. W. J. O'Sullivan, Dr. H. Roche-Kelly, Mr P. J. O'Sullivan, solicitor; Mr J. Lynch, Mr J. A. Doyle, solicitor; Mr James Welply, Mr R. Coogan, Mr J. P. Hartigan, Mr R. Holliday, Mr Nial Gaffney, solicitor; Mr Ed. Lloyd, Mr J. Murphy (National Bank), Mr A. J. Sexton, Mr W. G. Peacocke, etc.

Rev. Fr. Harty officiated at the graveside.

A number of beautiful wreaths were placed on the grave, and numerous Mass cards were also sent.

LICENSING LAWS.

The Midday Closing Hour

Croom House; Capt. W. Croom Castle; Capt. Megan Moloney, Col. and Mrs A. P. Browning, Mrs Glasson, Mess D. B. O'Donnell, P. Power,

The first covert visited was Hill, some three miles distant entered the north side and went outside to the south. It was before a wily fox could be recovered, and hounds were close he made a bid for liberty. north point of the hill handed and crossed the O' Cullinane's farm, where he got a shore. A fox terrier soon run again, and reynard decided to his first abode. With pursuit, the north side of again visited, and here a fresh the direction of Cloosh. He elected to chase their first reynard retraced his steps to O where he succeeded in getting a burrow, and was left for The field repaired to Licken hounds were soon busy work thick covert. The fox here stay-at-home variety, and he culty in forcing him to break north-west course to Chawke which he made a circuitous Moloney's and Cagney's farm the hill and the covert from first started. A check ensued a short nature, and reynard the same ground. Then ward, he took hounds a through a hilly country for Hunting was confined to the to bring the day's outing to

IRISH HOSPITALS

The Cambridge

Over Three Quarters
in One Day

The paying of the Cambridge money commenced on November, exactly a fortnight counterfoil was taken from ins

per pair

er yard

Value.

ple.

gany,

lf inch,
ft x 4 ft.

s, etc.