

out in Mr de Valera's asserted the British view ment.

o pointed out the period d 1932 was marked development of friendly operation between the and continued—since the Government are unable assumption that lasting ot be attained on the present relation- to see any grounds for on founded on assumption. re the Free State Govern- a final repudiation of their in the manner suggested, feel called upon to say they would adopt in y regard as hypothetical. lom Government feel that on equal terms, with the he British Commonwealth ate has enjoyed under the culminating in the Statute s the surest proof of their out their own destiny monwealth. We believe ciations between the two that close and friendly them is essential to their gain emphasise the United ment are and always have nely anxious to work in ion with the Irish Free r of the Commonwealth.

FF'S RESIGNATION.

ovisions of the Courts of r T. J. Prendergast has aching the age limit, the sheriff. The duties of the ure be carried out by the ar, Mr H. O'B. Moran, as, since the resignation of been discharging the duties ff. Mr Prendergast, who Alderman of the Corpora- ted city sub-sheriff over and gave entire satisfaction of his duties.

thrown on the screen. It was won by J. Wynne and A. Ringrose.

Mr E. Pearson conveyed the thanks of the members to Mr Galbraith for his interesting address.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, 19th December, when short debates will be held.

UNITED IRELAND PARTY

Convention at Limerick.

A large and representative United Ireland Party convention of delegates from the city and liberties was held in the Town Hall last night, at which Alderman James Reidy, T.D., presided.

Matters of organisation having been considered, the following were elected officers:—Mr P. Bourke, B.C., chairman; Ald. P. O'Flynn and Mr M. C. Burke, solicitor, vice-chairmen; Messrs. M. McMahon and M. Kennedy, hon. treasurers; Messrs. J. O'B. Kelly, solicitor, and J. Malone, hon. secretaries.

A branch of the United Ireland Party was formed at Brurea on Sunday, when a meeting for the purpose, held in the Parochial Hall, was attended by upwards of two hundred residents. The meeting was addressed by Mr G. C. Bennett, T.D.; Alderman J. Reidy, T.D.; Mr D. J. Madden, Co. C., and Mr J. Fraher, organiser.

DEATH OF MRS M. O'DONNELL.

The death took place after a protracted illness at her residence, 2 George's Quay, on Sunday evening of Mrs Madge O'Donnell at a comparatively early age. The deceased was widow of Mr T. O'Donnell, who carried on the business of harness maker in Ellen street for some years, and third daughter of the late Alderman David Gilligan. She was highly talented, with an engaging manner, which endeared her to a wide circle of friends, who tender sympathy to her sister and brothers in their bereavement.

The funeral took place from St. Mary's Church at 3 o'clock this evening for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery and was attended by a large concourse of mourners.

will be percel that on Friday and 9th December, ente under the auspices Brigade at L.P.Y.M. The C.L.B. Dramati sketches "The Jest Sweet) and "Box an Morton). Mrs Bak render selections (Cowen). The so George Walsh, who successful broadcast day last. A nove Solos by Mr W. P. Metcalfe's String C tribute selections to Entertainments o in the past have be the forthcoming pe be very successful.

Booking, which i at Messrs. Au hmu and the public are seats as early as pos

NEW RAI

A branch of the and Road Worker Limerick. Address J. P. Cullen, Dub Tralea

The following appointed—Mr T. Mr P. Hartnett, Se vice-chairman; M. The branch membe

NORTH G

Oil Painting P

An oil painting gaily be-decked Eucharistic Cong been offered by th Company, Breme agents, the Limeri Ltd., to Cardinal I accepted by His I at Messrs Clery's C