

Captain Rodney, who is Captain the Hon. J. of Gloucester Place, the It is thought he was Mr and Mrs McCormick. of the late Lord Rodney, the present Peer, and famous Admiral Rodney. says—who has serious spinal led upon in Winchester dition is as well as can itely established that the Captain the Hon. J. H. er of the present Lord

TY ROADS.

Expenditure.

of Limerick Co. Council

urveyor, Mr T. F. Ryan, report on provisional road r the year 1934-'35. He n roads, including surfac- ng, repairs to gulleys, etc, inst £33,860 10s. for the ounty roads estimate, in- surface dressing, and repairs d £38,584 15s, compared the current year. The total in and county roads was ompared with £72,427 10s ear. The proposals put very necessary works as ted improvements. The widening and decking the urch, which was at present

He had also included reting some of the worst ouns and villages of the rk he considered necessary ths were in a very bad con- ference to the proposals of the Council the County coach.

FORTHCOMING CONCERT.

As announced in our advertisement columns, a Song and Piano Recital will be given in St. Michael's Hall, Lower Cecil street, on Wednesday, December 20, at 3.15, by Mrs T. O'Donnell, whose recent broad- cast was so successful; Lord Montea- gle, already well-known as a gifted pianist, and Mr Bruce Flegg. Mr Bruce Flegg, who sings the tenor solos in the Dublin Phil- harmonic Society's performances of Handel's 'Messiah,' has also sung the tenor solos, with the greatest success, in the most important Choral Festivals in England, including the Three Choirs Festival and the Oxford Musical Festival. He is recognised as being one of the finest exponents of the part of the Evangelist in Bach's 'St. Matthew Passion,' and the "Musical Times" writes— "No English singer of the day surpasses Mr Flegg in this music" Mr Flegg has also sung leading parts in opera by Mozart, Gluck, and in Boughton's opera, "The Immortal Hour."

We are confident that a crowded audience will welcome these distinguished artistes, who are giving their services for the benefit of the Limerick Nursing Association.

DEATH OF MRS P. WALSHE.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place at her residence, Wickham street, last night of Mrs Walshe, after an illness of some duration. The deceased was wife of Mr Patrick Walshe, a former member of the Corporation, and at present organiser of the Amalgamated Plumbers' Society. Mrs Walshe was held in esteem and affection by a large circle of friends, who regret her passing, and tender sympathy to her husband, family, and relatives in their bereavement. Funeral arrangement in obituary notice.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH.

It will be seen by advertisement that a

ask the Minister Prendergast into c to either giving him gratuity.

LIMERICK

BUTTER—1s to 1
EGGS—1s 5d to POTATOES—34 l
stone.

TURNIPS—16 loa
FOWL—Chickens,
ducks, 2s 0d per
per lb.; geese, 3s 0

FRUIT—Apples,
3s 0d per basket;

RABBITS—8d to

MEAT—Chops,
mutton, 9d per lb
per lb; steak, best,
mutton, 7d per lb,
lb; legs of mutton,
6d and 7d per lb; c
lb; pork, 10d per lb

FISH—Cod, 1s pe
per lb; sole, 2s 0c
8d per lb; whitina
1s 0d per lb; turl
1s 6d; hake, 1s 4d
per doz.

BREADSTUFFS—F
ack Retail, 27s meal, 25s 6d per per sack; Flake C
W Bran, £6 10s p
per ton; Indian l
home-grown grain
do., do. (F.) £7

HAY AND STRAW
Rye hay from 35
upland hay, 24s 0c
24s 0d to 30s 0d.

CORN—There w 82 of wheat, and White oats from black oats, 6d to 0d per barrel; ba

WEEKLY CATTI
94 calves in mar
from 20s 0d to 50