Lady Sharpe and Miss Sharpe, J. Flegg (father), Mrs Flegg, Miss Bruce, Miss Mary Flegg.

At eight o'clock yesterday evening Mr and Mrs Dermot O'Brien entertained their friends to a dance and wedding reception at the Gresham Hotel in honour of their daughter. The bride and bridegroom, with the bride's father and mother, received the guests, who numbered about three hundred.

DEATH OF MISS E. A. COFFEY.

The death, which we regret to announce, took place at Barrington's Hospital last night of Miss Ellen A. Coffey after an illness of a month's duration. The deceased lady was youngest daughter of the late James and Alice Coffey, Bawnbrack, Golden, Co.
Tipperary, and occupied the position of Matron of Barrington's Hospital for the long period of thirty-three years. Miss Coffey was trained in Sir Patrick Dunn's Hospital, Dublin, and from the outset of her professional career she exhibited all the essential qualities associated with competency and efficiency in the pursuit of an exacting calling. In the discharge of her duties as Matron she enjoyed the full confidence of the Governors of the institution, as well as of the management committee and medical staff. With the patients and nursing staff she was extremely popular. By her death the institution loses a capable and painstaking Matron, and in their bereavement the sympathy of the public will be given to her relatives.

The funeral, which is announced to be private, will take place at one o'clock tomorrow from St. Mary's Church for the family burial place, Castle Abbey, Golden, Co. Tipperary.
