DEATH OF MISS MAI McCARTHY.

Widespread sympathy is expressed in the city with her relatives at the very unexpected demise of Miss Mai McCarthy, eldest daughter of Mrs Mina McCarthy and the late Mr Stephen J. McCarthy, of 2 Pery Square, which took place this morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs J. J. Halpin, Coolahara, Sunday's Well, Cork, where she had been on a visit. It was known that the deceased lady had been suffering from a cold, but seemed to be progressing towards convalescence. The news of her death has, therefore, come with a great shock to her bereaved mother and relatives, including Mr Joe McCarthy, principal of Messrs P. McCarthy and Sons, O'Connell street. Of a very bright and genial disposition, Miss McCarthy was held in affectionate regard by a wide circle of friends in Limerick and elsewhere, who will deeply regret the sad news of her death. The funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice in this evening's "Chronicle."
