SUDDEN DEATHS.

Maurice McKenna, aged 54, a returned American, had a heart seizure last evening, and died at his home in John street after being attended by a priest and doctor.

After returning to her home at Bank Place last night Margaret Meaney, aged 47, a labourer's wife, collapsed and died after receiving the ministrations of a priest.

As death in both cases was due to heart failure the Coroner, Mr J. S. McNeice, did not consider an inquest necessary.
