

have been initiated, to finance municipal aerick, with its anti-ministration, no such for the simple reason not the benefit of the ripped in the growing government. Then, ries the confidence of public to an extent with a body which devote the time neces- sity in administration. ll this city will be nity of a revival in As there is ample several departments, ity be a reduction in ople have to bear; but be greater had the his Bill a method for w system in operation cannot see his way at revise that system by a e for the county and l that he will make an from central funds of rates, similar to the One thing is pretty been emphasised re- hat the citizens cannot e heavy load of taxation ing for some years past. interest, as it holds up ry and creates unem-

AND ELECTRIC HTING. urges for electric light in

Call to Progressive Party in Corporation.

Thursday Night's Motions.

Dr Roche-Kelly, vice-president, presided at a meeting of the Progressive Party held last night, when it was decided to ask every member of the Party in the Borough Council to attend the meeting of the Council called for next Thursday night and to vote for the motions dealing with administrative reform.

These invite the members of the Council and the Board of Health to resign from office forthwith and make room for the appointment of a Commissioner pending the passage of the proposed City Management Bill into law.

The meeting pointed out the urgency of the matter from the viewpoint of the present high rate, which many cannot pay, with resultant unemployment and stagnation of industry and business.

DEATH OF MRS. AGNES E. DE ROS ROSE.

We regret to announce the death, which occurred at the County Infirmary yesterday, of Agnes Eliza, widow of Robert de Ros Rose, of Aghabeg, County Limerick, and mother of Major de Ros Ros, of Ardhu. The deceased lady, who had attained an advanced age, was of a very unassuming and kindly disposition, and throughout her life took a very keen interest in the care and protection and welfare of dumb animals. A wide circle of friends in Limerick and elsewhere will regret to learn of her demise. The funeral is announced to be private.

EX-SCHOOLS INSPECTOR DEAD.

The death took place yesterday in a private nursing home in Dublin of Mr Joseph McMahon, who for 40 years was an Inspector of National Schools, and amongst other places was stationed in Limerick in his time. He retired two years ago. He support, also to fortunately growing, not forgotten finan aid us during 1933

Captain Shaw, the report, which Hanly, and passed

The financial st position was satisf uncertainty existe a location of the H

Dr. O'Sullivan r of electricity in the increase was due it wards that were op

A resolution w against the high cos and calling for a re

The outgoing Co elected, the meetin of thanks to the I Shaw, seconded by

DEATH OF GU

Ex-Postma

We regret to an took place yeste residence, 7 Victo and well-known cit a former Postma Guerin had been and was in his 74t St. Mary's parish, early age entered his ability and recognised. Aft years in the local to Dublin as a mer clerical staff. He nence in that br nearly a quarter returned to Linc that responsible duties with a illt held in the highes his colleagues and retired on pension then all his leisu St. Vincent de I