

creased very con-
the instrumentality
will compensat-
loss mentioned. It
that the railways
oint of additional
ipts, and that the n has declined. In indications demon-
for this important
to the prosperity of
ing so, it is to be
not far distant when
e works will resume
and that redundancy
after of past history.

ourned.

fore Military
To-day.

Telegram says :
ilitary Tribunal as
day in connection
General O'Duffy,
ncitement to murder
thstanding the con-
bition issued by the present.

orney-General said he
within the Tribunal's
the trial, but having
ssue raised, which he
; he suggested the
rn the case until a
hey were satisfied the
tion, but to avoid a
out: they allowed the
l further notice.

FFY IN COURT.

Hjs Campaign.

ndent wires :—
an ordinary lounge
ompanied by Comdt
rnalists, Messrs C. J.
thew Chambers, who
as witnesses in the
ly represented.
is understood, will be
ney-General, who will

DEATH OF MISS M. A. BURNS.

Sincere regret is felt by numerous friends in Limerick at the death, which occurred at her residence, Mount Vincent House, O'Connell Avenue, last Saturday night, of Miss Margaret A. Burns, for many years Mistress of the junior class at Villiers School, Henry street. She had been in failing health since October last, and at the annual Prize Distribution before the Christmas holidays tribute was paid to her long and faithful services and the hope expressed that she would soon be enabled to resume duty. Providence has willed otherwise. Miss Burns, a member of an old Limerick family, was a very accomplished teacher, kindly and painstaking, and beloved by those of whom she had charge, past and present. All will bear in remembrance the happiest of associations with one who was ever mindful of their prospects in life.

The funeral took place yesterday at 3 p.m. for St. Munchin's Cemetery. There was a large attendance of friends to pay a last mark of respect, and the P.Y.M.A. was closed during the Service.

The Service, which was held in the Methodist Church, was conducted by the Rev. J. Mathers, who, in an address, paid a touching tribute to the deceased lady, her devotion to duty, love of literature, and her high Christian principles. The hymn, "Jesus, lover of my soul," was sung, and at the close of the Service the "Dead March in Saul" was played on the organ by Mrs Mathers.

The chief mourners were—Mr John Burns (brother); Miss Burns (aunt); Mrs Jameson and Mrs Willoughby (sisters); Mr Jameson (brother-in-law); Mr T Carman, Cork (cousin).

The Governors of the Villiers School present were—The Rev. A. E. Hewetson-Jones, Rev. W. M. Cargin, Mr E. L. Wickham, and Mr L. H. Taylor, with Mr R. T. Stout, Headmaster.

Amongst those also present were—The Archdeacon of Limerick, Mr A. J. Barnett, Messrs. Mulligan (2), C. Downey, E. H. Bennis, B. Morley Nelson, Messrs. Christy, W. J. Horae, J. McCarthy, J. E. Galbraith, F. Scales, N. Fogerty, A. Woodhouse, J. A. Baldwin, Dr. Mary Shire, Mrs Hewetson-Jones, Mrs Christy, Mrs Morrison, and many other lady friends.

The coffin was strewn with beautiful wreaths of natural flowers sent by the Governors of Villiers Schools, the Teachers and pupils, Mr and Mrs Morrison (Ulster Bank), Rev. J. R. and Mrs Craig and family, Clarina.

Rev. J. Mathers officiated at the grave-side.

EXTRAORDINARY FOG IN LONDON.

Worst in Living Memory.

CITY HOME ENTERTAINMENT GENERAL O'

By Limerick Drama League.

The Limerick Drama League presented "Still Running," Mr M. J. J. McKeown's diverting comedy, at the City Home and Hospital last night as a New Year's entertainment for the inmates of the institution. The comedy was staged in the old dining hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and festive mottoes.

There was a large attendance of inmates and convalescent patients, who thoroughly enjoyed the play, which is brimful of humour, and being capably enacted as it was by the caste, provided a welcome break in the lives of the poor people.

The characters were taken by Miss Mary Fitzgerald, Miss Kitty Bredin, Miss Queenie Holohan, Mr K. B. Dinneen, Mr T. Daly, Mr G. Smith, and Mr J. O'Donoghue.

Mr Alma Fitt made an efficient stage manager, and the intr' acte music was skilfully played by Miss Casey, pianiste.

At the conclusion, Mr P. Bourke, Chairman of the City Board of Health, expressed, on behalf of the Board, the inmates, the officials, and medical and nursing staffs his thanks to the Drama League for providing such an enjoyable treat. He had many years experience of dramatic art, and could safely say that the comedy "Still Running," was one of the most enjoyable he had ever attended. It had been very capably rendered by the League caste, who lived up to the parts. It was most regrettable to find that in the recent public production the comedy was so poorly supported by the citizens, but then the taste for drama appeared to have declined considerably. That was not very creditable, and they could only hope for an early revival of interest in the legitimate drama. The Limerick Drama League had been doing their utmost to stimulate interest in the most refined of all the arts, and were deserving of the support and patronage of the citizens. He again thanked the League for providing such a delectable treat for the inmates who had with every member of the audience immensely enjoyed the play.

The attendance included—The Mayor (Mr P. F. Quinlan), Alderman M. J. Brouder, Mr J. Casey, B.C.; Mrs Casey, Mr T. McNamara, B.C.; Mr J. J. McNamara, B.C.; Rev. Mother M. Evangelist, Nursing Community and Lay Nurses; Dr A. Humphreys, Resident Medical Officer; Mr J. J. Quilligan, Secretary Health Board, and Mr P. Barry, Assist. do.

Subsequently the members of the Drama League were entertained by the Rev. Mother and members of the Community of the Mercy Order.

CO. LIMERICK HUNT.

An Eighteen Miles Run.

at Kilmecdy on Saturday, a

Tribuna

Conditiona
Prob

The High Court is a conditional order view to preventing from hearing or dete General O'Duffy c charges are outsid diction.

The order was s Costello, S.C., T.D. Vincent Rice, T.D. Mr P. McGilligan Chas Casey, B.L. O'Reilly, solicitor).

Mr Costello an order of prohibition of the Military Tri from proceeding determination of by the Attorney-O'Duffy.

The application affidavit of Gener that the Tribunal hear and determin charges did not di the jurisdiction of summons was issu and that the charg unlawful associati offence or crime ki

In his affidavit that the Young been dissolved c and that the ori National Guard merged with the Fine Gael. Genl. was a member of tions since the dat exist. He also de had uttered any s did in any way ir President de Vale

Mr Justice O' order prohibiting ceeding with the of the charges, a order upon the upon the Registra

CATTLE E R]

Licences
To

Exports of cat resumed as from prohibition of a State Governme Ryan, Minister advice of the Catt