COMING INTERNATIONAL RUGBY MATCH AT DUBLIN.

Ireland v. England.

Needless to say, Rug yites all over the country, and none more so than in Limerick, are looking forward with keen interest to the International Rugby football match which will be staged at Lansdowne Road, Dublin, on Saturday, 10th February. Their attention is, therefore, invited to the Great Southern Railways arrangements which appear in our advertising colomns this evening. They relate to Friday, the 9th, and the day of the match itself. On that day (Sat. day) a special excursion train with restaurant car will leave Limerick at 8.25 a.m. The fares are very moderate.

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET MORAN.

Many old friends in Limerick will regret to learn of the death, which took place in Dublin yesterday, of Mrs Margaret Moran, widow of Mr James W. Moran, a former Managing Director of Messrs. Cannock and Co. Mrs Moran, who at one time carried on a bakery and confectionery business in O'Connell-street, was very highly respected and esteemed. Funeral by motor from Dublin to-morrow (Sunday) for Mount St.
Laurence Cemetery, arriving about 3 p.m.
