surroundings of "Sweet Adare," and attracted a big concourse of people from the city and the surrounding districts. The various features of the programme, including a Country Produce Stall, Clock Golf, Skee Ball, Concerts in the Manor, Bridge Tournament, and teas, were largely patronised, and a number of lady and gentlemen workers carried out the arrangements as usual in a manner which left nothing to be desired.

DEATH OF MR. EUGENE O'CALLAGHAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Eugene O'Callaghan, Charleston Avenue, Rathmines, Dublin, which took place yesterday in a private nursing home, Dublin. The deceased was eldest son of the late Mr Edward Hackett O'Callaghan, of this city, and brother of the late Mr Michael O'Callaghan, who was Mayor of Limerick in 1920. He was a director of E. O'Callaghan & Son, Ltd., City Tannery, and during his residence here before he took up residence in Dublin his interests were confined to his firm. Mr O'Callaghan was a man of discriminating literary tastes, and a great favourite with the citizens, who will regret his demise and extend sincere sympathy to his widow and children and other members of his family in their bereavement.

DEATH OF MRS. A. MEEHAN.

The death, which we record with regret, took place last evening at her residence, Sand Mall, of Mrs Annie Meehan, after an illness of some duration. The deceased was wife of Mr Thomas Meehan, an employé of Messrs. Pigott & Co., O'Connell street. She was a woman of engaging manner, that endeared her to a wide circle of friends, who regret her passing, and extend sympathy to her husband and children in their loss.
Funeral arrangements appear in obituary notice.
