DEATH OF REV. DENHAM OSBORNE.

We regret to record the death of a distinguished Presbyterian clergyman, the Rev.
Denham Osborne, of the Abbey Church, Kutland Square, Dublin. He was born in Newtownards, County Down, in 1854. He figured in Dublin in every organisation for the welfare of the whole community, and laboured unostentatiously for the welfare of the poor. The funeral, which took place to Sutton after the Service at the Abbey Church, was large and representative, and included the Lord Mayor (Alderman Alfred Byrne).

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH ABROAD.

News has been received in Limerick of the death at Brisbane, Australia, last Friday of Dr Matthew McNamara, brother of Mr Thomas McNamara, Clondrinagh, Limerick ; the late Mr John McNamara, Shelbourne, Mrs O'Donovan, Shannon Hotel, Castle-connell, and uncle of Mr D. G. O'Donovan, solicitor. The late doctor, who had been in failing health for sometime, enjoyed a large practice, and was held in high regard and esteem in the far off clime where he has passed away.

CONDEMNED HOUSES DEMOLISHED.

The five houses in Barrington's Mall which over tw lve months ago were condemned by the Corporation have now been demolished. Legal machinery prevented this very necessary work from being carried out at an earlier date, and now that the demolition has been completed, the road, which in the interests of the public had been blocked by a hoarding around the condemned houses, is re-opened.
