

During the night the Guards were actively engaged instituting enquiries into the outrage, and as a result Inspector Lyons arrested two men named Thomas Mullaly, of Feenagh, and William Barrett, of Old Mill, Newcastle West, who were charged with, as alleged, being concerned in the shooting.

It is understood that the outrage has a political significance, as Enright is stated to be a member of the League of Youth—the Blueshirt Organisation.

FATAL COLLAPSE.

Glin Man's Death.

An inquest was held at Glin by Mr R. Cussen, solicitor, Coroner, on Thos. Morgan, Turraree, Glin, who collapsed and died on the 22nd ult. after leaving a travelling show.

A sister of the deceased, Margaret Morgan, identified the body, and stated that her brother recently complained of stomach pains, and was medically treated twelve months ago.

In evidence, Thomas Breen stated that after leaving the show performance he saw deceased catch Richard Normoyle round the neck. Both fell, and deceased remained on the ground.

Richard Normoyle deposed to deceased having caught him round the neck after leaving the show. When Morgan fell witness, with assistance, got him into the tent, and he was given a drink of water. Shortly after he lost his speech, and was attended by a priest, who remained with him until he passed away.

At the request of the jury the Coroner ordered a post mortem, which was performed by Dr Barrett and Dr McGrath, who attributed death to shock and hæmorrhage from an ulcerated stomach of indefinite duration.

The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony, and expressed sympathy with the relatives, in which the Coroner joined.

ELECTION OF FISHERY CONSERVATORS.

the Fianna Eireann About twenty horsemen white sashes, the colour team, also took up position of the Catholic Boy Scouts with the Gardai, vainly to get a passage clear for the train.

At about 9 10 p.m. and the team were received who heartily congratulated the citizens, and by the Chairman of the County of the county residents.

Indescribable scenes witnessed as the train. Fog signals were exploded and the strains of the playing "Garryowen" could be heard above the Leading members of I.G.A.A., and prominent side the enclosure to a welcome, and Mr popular captain, was high by admirers. Men took their places in opposition in green and white, horsemen the procession yard. The crowd at through the cordon, and tically rushed at the were the players, some snobbed by the enthusiasm with extreme difficulty cleared sufficiently to through. All along street, Wolfe Tone street, crowds lined the the roads were almost

In O'Connell street was held up for the time isolated vehicles, including refuse car and a jarvis were cheered derisively. When the procession of enthusiasm were reaction of the spectators.

A huge crowd had Imperial Hotel in Cah was brilliantly illuminated and when the procession minutes before the tea