

ASHIONS."

terian Hall.

lecture entitled, illustrated by last evening at 8 in Hall, Lr. Mallow Rutherford, M.A., etc. There was a chairman, Rev. W. introducing Mr. who did not do better who was a very was of the highest and lecturer.

his lecture with a es in dress, etc., of long ago, and he rous points of con- of much interest,

Passing from eded to point out d customs of the enturies, and laid air crude dwellings, oid of windows or r merely consisting rough which the posed a hearty vote rford for his very his was seconded by r suitably replied. n to Mr Galbraith magic lantern for the Rush.

POSTAKE.

business has been ice of the Hospitals past week in con- d National Sweep- demand for tickets parts the staff had and in that way yment for many at ultimate, the Association must be judged by the attitude and acts of its members.

In the lengthy arguments which arose on the hearing of this motion, wide constitutional and legal issues were introduced, and Mr Justice Johnston reserved judgment until yesterday.

FUNERAL OF MR M. REIDY.

The remains of the late Mr Michael Reidy, 22 Bishop Street, were interred in the family burial ground, Rathkeale, on Saturday after Requiem Mass in St. Mary's Church. The funeral, which was of large dimensions, left at 11 o'clock for the last resting place. It included the Mayor, members of the Corporation, representatives of the United Ireland Party, and of the various public boards and other interests. It was a striking tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, and manifested the sympathy felt for his son, Alderman James Reidy, T.D., and the other members of the family in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Alderman J. Reidy, T.D., Messrs Joseph, Edward, John, and Thomas Reidy (sons); Mrs Storan, Misses Mary, Annie, and Nellie Reidy (daughters); Messrs Patrick and John McMahon, and Michael and Gerard Cooke (nephews); Misses Kitty, Mollie and Nora Reidy (nieces); Mr J. Storan (son-in-law); Mrs E. Reidy and Mrs T. Reidy (daughters-in-law); Mr and Mrs M. Hanrahan, Mr and Mrs P. J. Hanrahan, Mrs M. Cooke and family, Mr and Mrs W. Magner, and Mr J. Hogan (relatives).

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon Hannon, P.P., St. Mary's; Rev. Father Costelloe, C.C., do., and Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., do.

Many beautiful floral tributes and numerous Mass Cards were sent by members of the family and friends.

ROYAL DUBLIN SOCIETY LECTURES.

"The National Gallery of Ireland."

Next Friday Evening

of the long drought had dredging operations in it seem that dredging would be continued for some time.

The Mayor—This is been found necessary to so ne years?

The Engineer—Yes.

SCHOOLBOYS IN

A Strike and

More than three hundred Christian Brothers' School boys on strike yesterday as a wearing of blue shirts by their classmates. The the junior section among immediate pupils.

A procession was formed and nearly one hundred deep, paraded the priortown carrying the tri-colour "The Soldiers' Song" and Valera King of Ireland.

There are close on the school roll, and they are determined to until the others discard blue shirts.

A similar strike in School.

THE GRAND

Irish Sweep Position by Dro

The Directors of the have issued the following concerning the allocation of should necessitate the postponed or abandoned the prizes will depend race on the day on abandoned, each of the of horses in every year receive £1,666."

CYCLISTS'