CONDOLENCE.

At a meeting of the Corporation Committees last night,

Mr J. Dalton proposed a vote of sympathy with the family of the late Mr Daniel Daly.

Mr Horrigan seconded.

Ald. Reidy, T.D., proposed a vote of sympathy with the family of the late Mr John Crowe, Athlunkard street.

Ald. Bourke, T.D., seconded.

The Mayor associated himself with the votes of condolence, and proposed a vote of sympathy with the family of the late Dr John Corboy, Caherconlish, whose relatives were highly respected business people in the city.

The motions were passed in silence, all members standing.

THE LATE MR. M. BREW.

Alderman J. Reidy, T.D., presided at a meeting of the Abbey and Castle Wards branch of the United Ireland Party on Tuesday night when sympathetic references were made to the late Mr Martin Brew, Thomondgate, an active member of the organisation.

The Chairman, in proposing a vote of condolence with the widow and family, said that Mr Brew was a prominent member of the old Volunteer movement, and had given useful services to the United Ireland Party.

The vote was passed in silence.

Mr Ernest Blythe, Minister of Finance in the late Government, and Mr R. P. Keyes, merchant, Bantry, Co. Cork, have been returned unopposed as members of the Free State Senate in room of the late Mr S. Ryan and the Dowager Countess of Desart.
